Skills Development Course for Chess Tutors

Date: Tuesday 6th December 2011

Venue: Olympia Conference Centre, Kensington, W14 8UX

This training course will take place as part of the London Chess Classic www.londonchessclassic.com and includes free entry to the games!

Times: 10.30 am - 2.00 pm

Cost: £30 per person

The course is run by Chess in Schools and Communities, a registered charity that work in seventy schools around the UK and were recently featured on BBC Breakfast – see <http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/education-13343943>. The course is aimed at those who have already had some chess teaching experience and want to further develop their skills. It would also assist anyone planning on becoming a professional chess trainer.

The course will consist of the following modules:

- * Effective teaching - discipline, lesson plans, assessment
- * Legal aspects - health and safety, CRB checks
- * Benefits of chess
- * Primary school CSC chess syllabus - an overview
- * Cross-curricular links
- * Techniques for teaching chess
- * Running a school chess club
- * Resources and materials
