Players will need to make their own travel arrangements (eg flights) to one of the local airports: Milan Malpensa (108 km) and best for multiple flight options, Milan Linate (108 km), Genoa (42 km) or Turin

(87 km). Transfers are available from Malpensa at a cost of €40 each way and quotes for transfers from other airports are available on request. All of these arrangements can be confirmed once we have clarity about the size of the ECF delegation.

We will acknowledge receipt of your application followed by later confirmation of its success, with details of the team you will be participating in, along with a request for the deposit payment.

Please note that the ECF will hold payments made by you in respect of your participation in the FIDE World Senior Team Chess Championship on your behalf and will remit them to the organisers' bank account (Comitato ARCOWORLDCHESS - Pernici Rigo Cristina), but shall otherwise bear no liability whatsoever to you in contract, tort or otherwise in relation to your playing in the FIDE World Senior Team Chess Championship and any arrangements in connection therewith. For the avoidance of doubt the contractual arrangements that you, as a player, enter into in connection with your travel and other arrangements in respect of the FIDE World Senior Team Chess Championship are not with the ECF.
