The Bury St Edmunds Junior Chess Congress

Sunday 6th March 2016

at
Moreton Hall Community Centre, Symonds Road,
Bury St Edmunds IP32 7EE

Organised by
The BURY KNIGHTS JUNIOR CHESS CLUB

4-section Swiss Tournament
u18, u14, u11 and u9

Event sponsored by
Moreton Hall Community Centre

SPECIAL OFFER

Five for the price of four!

If five players enter from the same school, you need only pay for four. This offer only applies when the school co-ordinates entries and sends one cheque to cover their entries. Multiples also apply, so if ten pupils enter from the same school, two will be free.

There will be a free-to-enter Team Competition, open only to bona fide pupils from the same school (teams of five). They can be entered in any section.

Incorporating the East
Anglian Chess Union
Junior Championship

Moreton Hall Community Centre has a spacious hall for private hire with ample car parking and in house catering available for any occasion. Please call 01284 763402 for more details. Also located within the centre is Moreton Hall Community Club offering an inviting and comfortable place to relax with family and friends whilst enjoying the range of entertainment provided. All welcome!

SECTIONS

The event will be divided into four sections by age. Ages are as at 1 September 2015, so if your 11th birthday was on 24 September 2015, you can still enter the u11 section.

ENTRY FEES

The entry fee for all sections is £12.00. English Chess Federation members (Silver level or above) may deduct £2.00 from this entry fee. To join the ECF, go to www.englishchess.org.uk

RATE OF PLAY/CLOCKS

The rate of play for all sections will be 30 minutes per player per game. Clocks will be used in all sections and assistance will be given to any player unused to handling them.

BYES

Players may request a HALF-POINT BYE in the first round only, if travelling to the event for an 09.30 start causes a problem. Otherwise, entrants will play in all rounds (Swiss System). It is NOT a knockout event.

GRAND PRIX

This event will qualify for the Tradewise Junior Prix. All members of the ECF are entitled to compete for Junior Prix points.

CLOSING DATE

Entries will be accepted if postmarked by Wednesday 2nd March at the latest. Acceptance thereafter will depend on availability of space and payment of a £3.00 late entry fee.

PRIZES

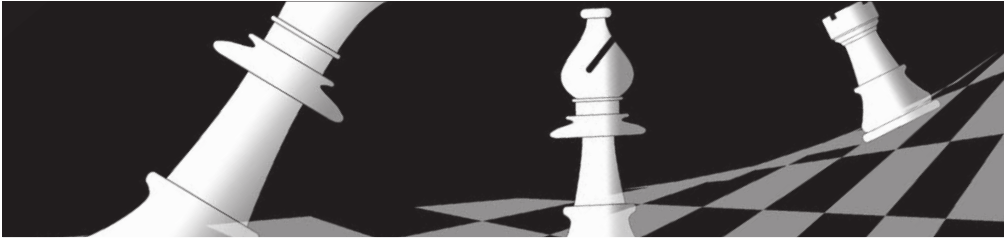

Cash prizes will be awarded according to size of entry. Section winners will also receive trophies.

GRADING

All results will be submitted to the English Chess Federation for their Rapidplay Grading List.

EACU JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

The highest-placed qualifying entrant in the Under 18 section will be the EACU Junior Champion and will hold the trophy for one year. To qualify, a player must either live in, or attend school in Suffolk, Norfolk, Cambridgeshire, Bedfordshire or Hertfordshire.

REFRESHMENTS

Light refreshments will be available throughout the event. Players may bring and consume their own packed lunches.

ORGANISERS

The event is organised by the Bury Knights Junior Chess Club. All enquiries to Bob Jones on 01284 811555 or to bobjoneschess@btinternet.com
