The top section will be ECF graded. If your child is an experienced chess player please register at the ECF for free for the first year in order to avoid grading costs (£3 per child).

The lower section will not be ECF graded and therefore children who are entering the lower section are not required to register with the ECF. Please contact Nick if you are unsure which section your child should enter.

Early entry is always appreciated. Entries made after Sunday 1st May 2017 shall incur a £5 late fee. Entries on the day will incur a £10 late fee.

For enquiries please contact Nick via email;

Phone: (in case of enquiries on the day only please) 07786 986489

Additional info

The Organisers accept no responsibility for any loss, theft or accident during the tournament. Parents or carers are responsible for their children during the event. Space will be available for parents who wish to remain for the afternoon. Children can be left for the day but the organisers cannot take responsibility for the children. Parents must make their own decision whether their child is mature enough to remain within the designated areas of the school.

Use of Information

Information supplied upon entry will be held securely on a computer for the purpose of grading and tournament management. Photographs may be taken during the course of the event & prize giving and may be used to publicise this and future events.
