SUFFOLK JUNIOR OPEN 2019

This event is now in its 19th year. Woodbridge School is well established as the premier school for junior chess in East Anglia, and is an accredited ECF (English Chess Federation) centre of excellence. International Master Adam Hunt is currently employed full-time to teach chess at the School. The school has produced three England internationals and former chess scholar Justin Tan from Australia recently became a chess grandmaster.

SUFFOLK CHAMPIONSHIPS

Trophies will be awarded to the highest scoring Suffolk player in every age group through from Under 8 to Under 18. Sections will be merged if there are insufficient entries in an age group.

ELIGIBILITY

Entrants must play in their own age group unless given permission from the organiser. This is based on their age at 31 August 2018. So a 9 year old on this date would play in the Under 10 section.

RATE OF PLAY

30 minutes per player per game. Clocks will be used on all boards. The games will be ECF rapidplay graded.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Academic, Sports, Arts, Drama and Chess scholarships are all available at Woodbridge. Please visit www.woodbridgeschool.org.uk for more details.

HANDS UP!

If there are any questions, a player should put their hand up and may pause the clock and wait for the arbiter if they feel the rules haven't been followed properly. It is generally not possible to retrospectively make a judgement after the game.

PARENTS

Parents are responsible for their own children throughout the day, although they are not allowed into the playing area whilst games are in progress.
