

In celebration of the 2019 English Chess Federation's English Women's Championships

HULL : AUGUST 30TH—SEPTEMBER 1ST

Two public events, everyone invited, chess players or interested members of the public. Both events are free to attend, no tickets are required, but for catering purposes please let Stephen Greep, Hon General Secretary, Hull and District Chess Association, know if you intend to come along (sjgreep@gmail.com).

Friday August 30th: Royal Hotel, Ferrensway, Hull. 19.30—20.30. An evening talk with Sean Marsh. 'To Hull and Back : A Yorkshireman and His Chess' Sean is providing coaching support to the championships and has recently been a coach in the HDCA junior summer school.

Refreshments (from 19.00) in the form of wine, soft drinks and 'nibbles' to help the evening along (other drinks may be purchased from the hotel bar). Sponsored by Hull City Council and the ECF. Finishes prompt 20.30.

Saturday August 31st : Master@thelocal with IM Richard Palliser. Holiday Inn, Marina. 15.30—18.30 Weather permitting, (inclement weather chess will move inside) an opportunity to play Richard in an informal simultaneous exhibition of chess, overlooking Hull Marina. Book prizes courtesy of Chess Magazine. Some sponsored refreshment at the hotel bar courtesy of Hull City Council, ECF and HDCA.

Working in partnership

Working in partnership

