

Foreword

Dear Chess Friends

Thank you for yet another vote of confidence by extending my leadership of the BCF into a sixth term.

We start the new year with some new Directors and I welcome them to the team.

I would like to take this opportunity to record my sincere gratitude to Gill and Peter Turner and also Neil Graham for many years of service to the BCF. I was delighted to learn that Council had approved Life Vice Presidency for each of them.

Council also approved the recommendation that we move to become a Company Limited by Guarantee and final details will be presented at a special meeting early in 2005.

I have held a number of positive meetings with Ministers Charles Clarke and Richard Caborn. Both are very supportive of the achievements and progress of the BCF.

With limited funds we did manage to celebrate our centenary and my thanks to those who assisted. It is not too late to be involved, the match of the generations is for everyone so please send your match results to the BCF office.

As the use of the internet expands we are taking steps to update our technology and I am pleased to learn that the number of subscribers to our "E-Mail alert" message service has reached 680.

The staff at the office in Battle continues to work wonders with so many deadlines to achieve. We are fortunate indeed to have such dedicated staff.

Gerry Walsh
BCF President

I am sad to see the departure of two of our longest serving Directors Peter Turner (Junior) and Neil Graham (Congress). After working closely with these two gentlemen for many years they will be missed. The coming year promises to be a busy one for the office with many changes, not least the proposed change of name for the Federation, but I am sure we will cope with it all. My thanks as ever to Dawn, Sophie and Gemma for their continuing high standard of work and the personal support that they give to me.

Cynthia Gurney
Manager of Finance & Management Services

CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S REPORT

The past year has been a busy one in relation to both administrative and other activities.

On the administrative front an important task has been to progress the introduction of various guidelines and procedures. A Code of Conduct in relation to the Disability Discrimination Act has been produced; a draft Child Protection Policy was discussed at a recent Management Board and a final version is close to being adopted. In addition, the BCF is now registered with the Criminal Records Bureau as an umbrella body and the work required to set up an appropriate administrative structure is in hand.

The Office lease is due for renewal in May 2005 and preliminary negotiations are due to start shortly. The Office staff have accepted an additional work load this year and are to be congratulated on their excellent performance. In particular I have received complimentary comments, including from overseas, about the quality and content of the yearbook.

Once again it is a great pleasure to record my grateful thanks to those many people – Directors, Officers, local organisers and many others – who work so hard on a voluntary basis for the good of chess. Without them chess would be in a poor state indeed. The BCF has had some long serving, devoted Directors over the years and two of them - Peter Turner and Neil Graham - have decided to stand down after giving long and successful service. My heartfelt thanks to both of them –they will be a hard act to follow! The considerable achievements of other Directors are outlined in their reports to Council.

The BCF has suffered through the lack of new sponsorship during recent years so it is to his great credit that Allan Beardsworth obtained substantial sponsorship to enable a good team to be sent to the Olympiad.

During the year it has been a pleasure to attend a number of BCF events – for example, the County Championship finals, the counties U 18 final, the final of the National Club and the Championships in Scarborough, where there was a most enjoyable Centenary Dinner. During the year I also enjoyed meeting a delegation from the Norwegian Chess Federation. Other meetings have been held with Government Departments – both the DCMS and the DfES. The Chess in Schools project has proved to be both interesting and fruitful and has provided some interesting insights into the possible impact of chess in education. Recently I had the privilege of attending and playing in the World Inaugural Senior Team Championship in the Isle of Man.

It is also a great pleasure to record that the UK now has two world champions – Andrew Martin is the world simultaneous champion and Dr J Nunn is the world problem solving champion. In addition to this there was a superb performance from Mickey Adams who reached the final of the FIDE world championship.

The future promises to be a busy and challenging one. The possibility of changing the structure of the BCF needs careful consideration. The BCF is an unincorporated body. During recent years it has become the norm for organisations such as the BCF to become Limited Companies. It is anachronistic that the BCF has not changed its organisational structure and I believe that such a change must be made.

Once again my grateful thanks to all those who contribute so much to chess, whether it be at international, national, union, county, league or local club level.

Roy Heppinstall
Chief Executive

DIRECTORS' REPORTS

FINANCE

The accounts for the year show a deficit of over £10,000, though this is inflated by accounting policy changes. This is in line with the projection given to Council in April. Total reserves, including legacy fund, fell by over £15,000, and are now below the safety point. This is not sustainable and Council took the necessary but painful decision to increase game fee and membership fees by around 20% to bring the budget into balance.

Neil repeated the impressive performance of the previous year with another £7,000 surplus on the Congress. The generous sponsorship for the Grand Prix from Terence Chapman has ended, and the Board decided to sustain the event for one year. Council confirmed the decision by approving additional funds for this purpose for this year. Sponsorship has now been found for the Olympiad team.

The generous increases in grant from the Department of Culture, Media and Sports have now ended, and the future prospects are for stable funding. Their clearly stated intention is for national sports organisations to fund an increased share of their expenditure from their own resources.

Finally I would like to express my thanks and appreciation of the work of the office in keeping the accounts, and to John Philpott (Chairman of Finance Committee) and Geoff Steele (Auditor) for their assistance in my first year in the job.

Robert Richmond
Finance Director

BCF ACCOUNTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30th APRIL 2004

1. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The British Chess Federation is an unincorporated body and the accounts are prepared in accordance with current recommended accounting practices.

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Tangible fixed assets are shown at cost less depreciation which is charged on a straight line basis to write off the costs over their estimated useful lives at the following rates: -

Fittings in leased premises	5 years (the period of the lease)
Telephone system	10 years
Computer network system	7 years
Other office equipment	5 years
Other computer equipment	4 years
Chess equipment	10 years

The computer software for the grading system was written off in total during 1999/2000.

Changes in accounting policies

There have been changes in accounting policies in the current year.

Chess equipment has been capitalised and will be written off over 10 years in future. The cost of current equipment has been calculated at cost but the 100% write off in earlier years has been left and included under accumulated depreciation.

Events finishing up to the end of July 2004 have been included in the accounts and not carried forward as in previous years. These events are the Counties, National Club and Schools Championships and results for two years are included in these accounts. This results in a deficit on these events £4,423 being brought forward a year. In addition £5,000 has been provided in the accounts for prize money donated to the Congress Grand Prix ending in August 2004. The only event in the summer of 2004 carried forward is the BCF Congress.

The accounts do not follow accounting standard FRS3 on the deficit shown for the current year arising from the accounting policy changes. It is the opinion of the board that this is not a material breach of FRS3 and that the treatment adopted makes clear the full reduction in balances and the full impact of the accounting changes.

As in previous years, further provisions have been made to fund events, which we host at intervals greater than one year.

Direct Members' Subscriptions have been credited when received and a provision has been made in the accounts for subscriptions paid in advance for future years and for the cost of services to be supplied after the Balance Sheet date until the subscriptions expire.

2. MANAGEMENT BOARD'S RESPONSIBILITIES STATEMENT

We are responsible for overseeing the keeping of proper accounting records, preparing accounts for each financial year which show a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Federation at the year end and the surplus or deficit for the period and for safeguarding the assets of the Federation and for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In preparing the financial statements we have:

- Selected suitable accounting policies and then applied them on a consistent basis, making judgements and estimates that are prudent and reasonable.
- Stated whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- Prepared the financial statements on a going concern basis.

3. APPROVAL OF THE ACCOUNTS ON BEHALF OF THE MANAGEMENT BOARD

G. Walsh      President
R. Richmond      Finance Director

AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE COUNCIL OF THE BRITISH CHESS FEDERATION

I have audited the financial statements which have been prepared under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out above.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT BOARD AND AUDITOR

As described above, the Management Board is responsible for the preparation of financial statements. It is my responsibility to form an independent opinion, based on my audit of those statements and to report my opinion to you.

BASIS OF OPINION

I conducted my audit in accordance with Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the Management Board in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the Federation's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

I planned and performed my audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which I considered necessary in order to provide me with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatements, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming my opinion I also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

OPINION

In my opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the Federation's affairs as at 30th April 2004 and of its deficit for the year then ended.

I would draw members attention to the paragraph in the Principal Accounting Policies relating to the change in accounting policies in the year.

The investments in the Permanent Invested Fund are held by trustees under a deed dated 1929 which is perpetuated by supplementary deeds every 21 years (next renewal 2013) whereby the income is paid to the Federation and the trustees may make distributions of capital in exceptional circumstances of urgent need provided the money is for the benefit of “the objects” of the Federation, but only on the authority of a resolution of Council.

STRATEGIC PLANNING & GRADING

STRATEGIC PLANNING

The BCF produces annually the following documents:

- Long-term Strategic Plan
- 1 year Business Plan
- Achievement Report against the Previous years Business Plan

Copies of these documents can be found on the BCF website at www.bcf.org.uk/organisation/general

My thanks to Neville Belinfante for compiling the documents, to my fellow directors for providing the necessary inputs and to the Office staff for their support.

GRADING

1. Review of the Year

Of the principal Grading activities scheduled to be performed during the last year:

- a) The printouts for Direct Members were produced on time in July.
- b) The 2004 Grading List went on sale, on the first day of the British Championships.
- c) Corrections to the 2004 Grading List were published in paper form, and also sent by email, much earlier than usual at the beginning of September. There were 286 corrections. This is the smallest number since I became Grading Director. Incidentally, the number of errors was in fact only 39.
- d) The 2004 Grading CD-ROM incorporating the Master List was sent to Graders in early October.

Additionally:

- i) a review of the FIDE to BCF conversion was conducted to see if the reduction of the minimum rating necessitated a change in the formula. It was found that there were as yet too few additional FIDE rated players (with BCF Grades) to reach any conclusion regarding a change in the formula.
- ii) a review of the junior Grade increment was conducted. The analysis did not show a convincing case to change the existing junior increments. There is however, perhaps a case for extending the junior increment from u18 to u21. But the increment would be relatively small and no change was made.
- iii) a review was conducted into what, if anything, should be done about "negative" Grades. Currently, a Grade of "1" could indicate a negative Grading performance. No conclusion was reached on what to do about the problem. It was decided that the only thing to do was to defer a change for a further year and do further work to reach a consensus on an appropriate solution.

2. Amount of Chess Played

Here is data on chess activity based on the last four years BCF Grading Master Lists. The results suggest that standard play chess activity is roughly stable at present. Rapidplay chess shows an increasing trend.

No of Results	Normal Play	Rapidplay
2000/2001 season	203, 686	71,128
2001/2002 season	208, 500	71, 651
2002/2003 season	207, 019	86, 741
2003/2004 season	206, 295	96, 043
Number of players with published Grading
2000/2001 season	12, 488
2001/2002 season	12, 261
2002/2003 season	12, 468
2003/2004 season	12, 812

3. Concluding Points

In conclusion, I would like to thank the Office at Battle for their support, the BCF Officers Richard Haddrell, Alan Ruffle and Ann Walkeden for all of their hard work throughout the year. I would especially also like to acknowledge the voluntary work of the other members of the Central Grading Team: Howard Grist, Bruce Holland, Neville Belinfante and Dave Thomas and finally the voluntary efforts of the 100 or so local Graders without whom there would be no Grading Lists.

WOMEN'S CHESS

This has been a very important year for women and girls' chess, both domestically and internationally.

The women and girls' chess website "chessuk.com" is now a well-established and successful site. It has received extremely positive feedback from parents and players alike and has enabled players across the world to contact the Director of Women's Chess. It provides information on all aspects of women and girl's chess, including:

- details of all forthcoming junior and adult events
- tournament results
- interviews with top players
- links to chess organisations and clubs
- an easy way to contact the Director of Women's Chess

The establishment of a new national championship, in conjunction with the English Counties Girls' Chess Federation (ECGCF), has been an extremely successful project. Four regional events, a "Silver Final" and the qualification only "Gold Final" of the "All England Girls Championships" have been held this year, with over 400 girls taking part overall. This event has provided the opportunity for many new players to participate in their first national championship and encouraged established competitors to continue playing chess. The new season of "All England" tournaments will commence by the end of 2004.

To strengthen links with outside bodies that provide chess events for women and girls, the Director of Women's Chess has actively represented the BCF at many tournaments throughout the country, for example, the UK Chess Challenge. This tournament, now the largest in the world, continues to go from strength to strength, encouraging thousands of girls to play chess, initially in school and then at the "Megafinals". The Director has been an arbiter at the Kent Megafinal for the past few years and also helps at other regional events and considers continued involvement with the UK Chess Challenge to be very important for the development of junior chess.

Various coaching initiatives have been set up, with individual coaching provided to those who responded to an advertisement in ChessMoves. Coaching was also provided to several players to thoroughly prepare them for the British Championships. In addition to this individual coaching, group training sessions were provided by WIM Ruth Sheldon at the All England Girls Chess Championships. A new set of coaching days will be taking place across the country in the next few months.

The European Individual Women's Championships have recently taken place, at which England was well represented by Jovanka Houska, Heather Richards and Ingrid Lauterbach. Jovanka's play ensured that she received one of the few available prestigious and highly sought after Women's World Championship places. Heather received the prize for the best performance by a player graded under FIDE 2300. In the European Team Championships, Harriet Hunt and Jovanka Houska played magnificently and with the help of team coach GM Peter Wells came 10th overall.

The British Championships in Scarborough was an extremely successful event for female players, both Jovanka Houska and Ketevan Arakhamia-Grant played brilliant chess and spent a large portion of their time on the demonstration boards. The last round of the Under 11s saw Sheila Dines and Jessica Thilaganathan on board 1, battling it out for the championship, with the victor, Sheila Dines going on to win the European Championship Under 12 title.

With the introduction of a new and very successful national girls tournament, the triumphant results of our players internationally and the new coaching initiatives that have been set up, this has been a very important year for women and girls' chess.

CONGRESS CHESS

My report to Council last year spoke of "responsibilities sitting heavily on my shoulders". I was elected to the Board at the Annual General Meeting of 1997 and have now been Director of Congress Chess for seven years. Altogether I have served continuously on the board for, I think, the last 23 years firstly as part-time delegate for the MCCU when the late Harry Baines was the MCCU permanent delegate, then as permanent MCCU delegate and latterly as a Director. I have seen people come and go and have moved myself from relative youthfulness into middle age. I have decided that it is an appropriate time to step down and I therefore did not seek re-election.

I would not be doing this unless I was confident that I was handing over to someone who would continue the work I have done. I know from the questionnaires returned from the BCF Congress that there is general discomfort about the fact that the BCF is run by "old men". Unfortunately there is a dearth of young organisers in the game and this must be addressed. That said, I recommend to the Board that David Welch, the BCF Chief Arbiter, be appointed in my place. David has retired and now has considerably more free time than I have. He has shadowed my duties throughout the year and is well aware of all aspects of the Directorate and of the Championships. Whilst I tidy up the 2004 Championships, David is already working on the 2005 and subsequent events. I therefore formally proposed David as the new Director to the Management Board.

The financial result of the 90th Smith & Williamson British Championships at Edinburgh once again made a healthy profit to add to those I have made at the previous five championships which I have organised. I had no reason to think that the 91st Championships this year at Scarborough would be any different. Entries were down at 960 compared to 1009 in 2003 but this loss reflects solely a lesser entry in the Championship and also the Weekend events. It is unfortunate that many of those who spent so much time signing petitions about the Championships were unable to grace the event with their presence despite the shortfall of Commonwealth competitors. The withdrawal of Michael Adams at the last minute was more understandable and led to a Championship where Jonathan Rowson became the first Scottish champion since 1946. Jonathan is a fine role model for our younger players and his victory was well deserved.

The better than expected performances have enabled the BCF to keep the Grand Prix afloat for a further two years, albeit with a reduced budget. In the shortened 2004 event a total of 1075 qualifying scores were posted and whilst the prizes at the top were curtailed those for amateur players were increased. I cannot stress enough that the continuation of the Grand Prix is a vital part of the Federation's service to players and it would be a tragedy if the event had to be wound up after over 30 years. I view this a benefit of membership of the Federation and the search for a proper sponsor must be treated as a matter of urgency. The Federation cannot rely forever on the good offices of the Championship surplus to fund the Grand Prix, give assistance to the British Rapidplay and so on.

There have been major changes since I took over the running of the event that may have been overlooked over the passage of time. I have a clear recollection of how I wanted to change things and move the Federation forward at that time. Whilst I may not have achieved as much as I originally hoped, I know that many of the innovations introduced are now treated as standard. I would like to thank Board and Council for their support over the past seven years.

Neil Graham
Director of Congress Chess

HOME CHESS

County Championships

Another new venue was used this year, the Leisure Centre at Hinckley. David Welch was surprised to find that all the tables and chairs were set out ready for us, and the frequent refrain from the centre staff was "Is there anything we can do to help?".

We were pleased that no-one felt it necessary to sample the swimming pool after a disastrous loss. The facilities offered were excellent, and would be capable of staging other events

The Finals again saw all the Unions represented, with the Midlands producing the Open Winners in Manchester, and Shropshire for the U125. Essex won the U175, Cambridge the U150, Bedford the Minor and Norfolk the U100s. My commiserations to the WECU and NCCU.

My thanks to all the county captains in the event for their helpfulness and forbearance.

For the final, I must thank David Welch and John Shaw for the controlling, the Brown Family from Sharnford near Hinckley for their help in admin and Roy Heppinstall for presenting the prizes.

National Club

This event went smoothly, for which the clubs and the controllers must be thanked. This has been the swan song of Phil Clemow, whose efficiency with the Open has only been surpassed by his willingness to dispense helpful advice. Mike McNaughton and Julie Johnson have run their sections well, and Geoff Kendall handled the administration of the Rapidplay with his usual gentle humour.

The decision of Council to force the event to break even might well have a detrimental effect. We can only wait and see. I remember 7 years ago, someone putting a draconian limit on the prizes which decimated the entries. I would have appreciated as a matter of courtesy someone asking me for my views before they proposed such a drastic action.

Chess for the Disabled

This year has seen the implementation of the CODE of CONDUCT for all chess players. I wish to pay tribute to the Braille Chess Association and English Deaf Chess Association for their work. I am submitting a motion to Council proposing the creation of an organisation called CHESS FOR ALL. The aim of this body is to fulfil the same function as the BCA and the EDCA for other chess players with impairments, and to assist everyone to have an equality of opportunity of access to this wonderful sport. We have been assisted by a Local Council Officer in our work, who wishes to remain anonymous. Roy and I have met with him, and his input has been very important in our progress.

Chess in Other Forms

I am in the middle of discussions with two internet chess organisations to provide free internet access for English Chess Players.

The Counties and District Correspondence Championship was administered by Bob Veitch for a year, and he has now handed over to John Philpott. I wish to thank both gentlemen for their work.

Chess Outside Organised Clubs

I would draw the attention of delegates to the fact that there is much chess played outside formal chess clubs. Hostels for the homeless have residents who can and who wish to play chess. May I ask each league to contact local shelters and donate a couple of sets and boards. If some of the residents get back into a settled existence, they might even join a chess club.

I have been in discussions with the Prisons Department. Their suggestion is that local clubs contact their nearest penal institution and see if there is a need for someone to come in and teach chess. A local player, suitably vetted, would be most welcome in most places. Obviously certain establishments have a greater security concern than others.

New Chess Clubs and Players

I frequently take phone calls asking where the nearest club to Dewsbury is. I also get calls asking me which body runs chess in a certain area. May I recommend to County, League and Union organisers that they are pro active with their publicity. Whilst I am willing to help in any way I can, a local first contact looks so much better. I also commend the use of the local libraries and information centre as a free resource and the nearest newsagent as a minimal cost resource.

New Initiatives

National Knockout Tournament

This event will be advertised by the time that Council meets. The intention is that the final 4 players will contest their games on the same day as the National Club Finals in London. If anyone wishes to become the Controller for this event for 2005-2006 please contact me.

Chess Organiser

Whilst accepting that the above phrase can be an oxymoron, I intend to work in conjunction with other directors to create the title of BCF CHESS ORGANISER so that some kind of seal of approval can be given to chess event organisers

Referees

I am in discussion with David Welch as to how to formulate a test for this post which can be administered either in writing or viva voce. The full details should be available by December 2004.

I would like to thank all those who have offered help and advice over the years. I would also like to thank those who have forgiven any errors over the period, and look forward to serving the BCF. I must state that if the BCF does not become a company limited by guarantee I will not seek re-election in 2005. I will seek re-election this year to provide continuity, but feel that I cannot take the risk in subsequent years.

Cyril F W Johnson
Director of Home Chess

INTERNATIONAL

The International Directorate Team

My first objective when coming into post was to get a team of people working together. I am pleased to say that this has gone well. I am deeply indebted firstly to my assistant GM Peter Wells. I don't think I could have done this job without him. On a lighter note I have noticed that he seems to have had good results since taking on the task. No sooner had he come into post than he had retained his title at the British Rapidplay and then won the Grand prix. I am also indebted to Allan Beardsworth. I first approached Allan in November and thankfully I persuaded him to help me look for sponsors for the International team. I thought his experience as a corporate tax partner with Deloitte would be invaluable and so it has proved. Allan has worked ceaselessly on this task. Hundreds of letters have been written as we looked for chess links in the corporate structure and we have had some bites. Without Allan's help I would not be in the position to announce Deloitte as principal sponsors of the England Olympiad team. We also have someone else interested for the 2006 Olympiad as well. Another big thank you to Brian Smith. He has been a very helpful contributor to the cause.

The FIDE World Championship Knockout

I cannot go any further without congratulating Michael Adams on his magnificent performance in the above Championship held in Tripoli in June and July. To get to the final was a tremendous effort especially from a starting field of 132 participants. To lose in the Rapidplay playoffs after drawing the match 3-3, as the nation held its collective breath was not what anyone wanted as it would have meant a lot for the future of the game in this country. His performance certainly increased the media coverage of chess and we were all looking forward to the possibility of an Adams v Kasparov match. But it was not meant to be.

The European Team Championship, Plovdiv, Bulgaria October 2003

The work for this event had already been done when I came into post. I am very grateful to my predecessor Stewart Reuben for his work in getting the team together for this. As we all know there was no sponsorship and as a result a team was selected that were willing to accept way below the usual fee. As a result we went into the Championship as only the 23rd seeds. So to finish 17th with 19 out of 36 points was a good result. So thank you very much to Messrs Jon Speelman, Bogdan Lalic, Glen Flear, Jonathan Levitt and Peter Wells for their efforts. Jon Levitt returned the best percentage score with 4/6.

The Women's team of Harriet Hunt and Jovanka Houska ended up in 10th place. They were well in the hunt until round 8 when they went down 2-0 to Armenia. It should also be noted that they played the strongest average opposition of all the teams.

The Selection Committee

After taking soundings and discussing it with Peter Wells we eventually settled on Michael Adams, Ray Edwards, Harriet Hunt, Nigel Short and myself. I take this opportunity to thank Ray Edwards for allowing us to meet in the BCM Offices and to all the members of the panel for accepting the position of selector.

Internationally Rated Domestic Events

It is my policy to try wherever to support those who put on and stage Internationally rated events from which players can gain titles and ratings. Successfully staged events during the last 12 months have been the North West Round Robin, the Monarch Assurance Isle of Man, the Hastings Premier and Challengers, the 2nd Gibraltar Masters, the Simpson's in the Strand Staunton Memorial, Yateley Manor and of course the 4NCL. My apologies to those I have missed out.

Another pleasing development has been that some weekend congresses have become FIDE rated. Congratulations to the Blackpool Weekend Congress Open and the 1st Coventry International for following this path.

The 36th Chess Olympiad, Majorca, 14 – 31 October

The English Men's (Open) Team selected to represent us in Majorca is Michael Adams, Nigel Short, Luke McShane, Jon Speelman, Mark Hebden and Peter Wells. The team is to be captained by Allan Beardsworth. I write this just a few weeks before the Olympiad and I can assure that we will be doing our best to try and win a medal. The Women's team is Harriet Hunt, Jovanka Houska, Heather Richards and Melanie Buckley. John Emms will be both captain and coach. Everyone can follow our progress and everybody else's in Majorca by logging on to www.36chessolympiad.com

(At the time of going to press the Olympiad has just finished and a report can be seen on page 48)

The Deloitte Sponsorship

When I started I set out my main goal as getting the financial backing that would enable us to get as strong a team out as possible. I am as a result very grateful to the financial services firm Deloitte for stepping in to support the team. I am also grateful to the private donor who made a significant contribution and to the Friends of Chess. As a result we are able to get out as strong a team as possible in both the Men and Women's team. I must also say thankyou to those who promised me money from their own pocket should we not have been successful in getting a sponsor. It is great to know that I could have got the money together without a sponsor because of the generosity of these lovers of chess. I must also say thankyou to the BCF General Council who agreed to vote for the sum of £3,000 to be allocated towards players fees. I believe that this is the first time it has happened. This is a positive sign to our large core of professional players that the Federation will try and help them and that it cares for professional chess.

The International Rating Officer

The duties of International Rating Officer (IRO) have been transferred to the Grading Directorate. An announcement regarding this post will be made at the Council meeting.

Conclusion

After one year in the job I continue to find it very challenging. There are still aspects of the job that I am finding out about; I feel that you sort of grow into it and one year is not enough time to complete that growing. As a result I hope that I have your continued support for another year in Office. I have for the last financial year come in under budget and with the Deloitte sponsorship hope to come in again under budget. It would be nice to be able to help and assist professional chess as well as convey to the grassroots that we are not expecting them to pay for everything. I will also hope to continue to help the Braille Chess Association, the Problem Solving Society and the Deaf Association. I will also give assistance where due to my predecessor Stewart Reuben in his development of Veteran's Chess. I congratulate John Nunn on becoming the World Problem Solving Champion and congratulations to the team for coming second. There has been good co-operation between the Women's Directorate and myself. Claire Summerscale's Directorate is very underfunded and through a combination of the Deloitte sponsorship, private donors and the Friends of Chess we have been able to help Claire get a strong team to Majorca. This I certainly intend to continue. Finally a very big thank you to Cynthia and her team at the BCF Office. They work very hard on a wide variety of matters and are often forgotten by those who play chess. My job is certainly easier because of their help.

Rupert Jones
International Director

COACHING

I have just completed my third year as Head of Chess at Millfield School in Somerset. The school has a commitment to chess for its' social, personal and educational benefit to children. I believe that also being a BCF Director, has reflected positively on the BCF and enhanced the status and perceived worth of chess at junior level.

Most weekends I have the opportunity to meet with chess children and organisers around the country as an integral part of my work with Millfield students, thus I am able to understand and discuss concerns over a wide range of chess related issues. In this ambassadorial type role I believe that I can continue to fulfill a useful role on behalf of the BCF.

In the last year, in addition to my work at Millfield, I have managed to:

- Continue to do simuls to create publicity opportunities for local chess.
- Organised a Mega Final for the UK Chess Challenge, London Junior Qualifying tournament and the Millfield International.
- Assisted with organisation of the SpecSavers Young Masters. Arranged for some coaching support and a wide range of sporting activities.
- Visited the National Junior Squad Championships in Nottingham and gave some coaching support.
- Coached the England team at the European Union Championships in Austria.
- Consulted with the Director of Junior Chess in matters relating to coaching support.

The Certificate of Excellence.

I am delighted at the continued growth of the scheme and support from the Board of Actuaries. In response to many requests I am to write an additional level between Silver and Gold. It seems that the scheme is established as a most useful tool in both introducing youngsters to chess and also measuring their progress. Over 3,000 youngsters have entered for the examination. This is a considerable impact at grassroots junior level.

The Criminal Records Bureau (CRB) – Disclosure

I was involved, on behalf of BCF, in meeting with the CRB to establish the nature of the 'Disclosure' process. I am pleased that the BCF is now a Registered Organisation entitled to ask the CRB to carry out the disclosure process. This procedure can only be completed with the knowledge and agreement of the individual concerned. It is a confidential procedure and not a secret investigation into a person's past. For individuals registering via the BCF, and who will be working in a voluntary capacity eg. junior organiser or club official responsible for juniors, the CRB does not make a charge BUT the registering organisation can make a charge. I have experience of the amount of work and time spent on processing each application and strongly advise that the BCF should make an 'administration charge'. I consider a reasonable charge would be in the £15 to £20 range. Be aware that these disclosures are not for life, like MOTs there will be a need for regular resubmission of each disclosure. This will consume an enormous amount of office time. A fee should be levied.

It is clearly appropriate and necessary that adults who are officially in charge of BCF junior groups will have gone through the disclosure process and individuals advertising their coaching services as BCF registered coaches will fulfill the minimum requirements as below.

BCF Registered Coaches

Adults listed have fulfilled the following requirements:

1. Completed the disclosure process.
2. Supplied a character reference.
3. Demonstrated a competence to teach to established levels.
4. Be a member of the BCF

BCF Coaches, IM Adam Hunt & GM Matthew Turner get down to some early morning preparation prior to the final round at the European Union Championships in Austria.

BCF/DfES Chess in Schools Project

This has been a major initiative over the last year. I have managed to visit 6 of the 8 project schools and to provide support materials and equipment. The final report is almost ready to submit to the DfES. In addition to the support package which we hope to make freely available via an internet download I consider the documents we have developed on 'Fair Play', 'Child Protection' & 'Code of Conduct for Organisers' will form the basis of useful advice and guidelines for all involved in chess play and organisation.

I would like to put on record my thanks to Board Members, Chief Executive Roy Heppinstall, President Gerry Walsh, Home Chess Cyril Johnson, Junior Chess Peter Turner and Cynthia Gurney at Head Office for their endeavors on behalf of the project.

Matthew Turner GM
Director of Coaching

Chess in Schools - CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

The BCF recognises that a major part of their responsibility is to ensure the safety and well-being of all the young people who take part in BCF chess activities

In order to safeguard young people we will:

- Recognise that children have the right to freedom from all types of abuse
- Adopt Child Protection guidelines through the Code of Conduct for Organisers and participants
- Ensure that children can identify responsible adults
- Ensure access to confidential information is restricted to appropriate officials
- Ensure that children's complaints/concerns are dealt with in a sympathetic and appropriate manner
- The BCF will only recommend coaches/trainers who have undergone the CRB disclosure clearance

Chess in Schools - CODE of CONDUCT for ORGANISERS

The BCF is committed to protecting young people taking part in chess activities. As part of our Child Protection Policy we recommend that all organisers should follow the Chess in Schools Code of Conduct. Working with children & young people can bring great rewards but is a huge responsibility.

Applying this Code of Conduct will assist your endeavours.

- Ensure that young people are listened to and kept safe from harm
- Recognise that all participants are young adults whose welfare and development are paramount
- All young people should be treated and respected as individuals whose needs shall be catered for at all times
- Parental responsibility is important and shall be respected and recognised
- Values deriving from different backgrounds shall be recognised and respected
- Recognise the requirements of children with differing abilities
- Do not do things of a personal nature that a young person can do for themselves, such as taking a child to the toilet or changing clothes
- Try to avoid spending any time alone with a young person

Unacceptable Behaviour

- Participants should be encouraged to develop a sense of right and wrong behaviour and adhere to the Chess in Schools Fair Play Promise
- Where unacceptable behaviour does take place, appropriate sanctions should be applied to modify the behaviour
- Sanctions applied to each case should take account of the age and stage of development of the young person, be given at the right time, be relevant to the action and be fair
- The participant must always be told why the behaviour is unacceptable and the reasons for applying a particular sanction
- Corporal punishment (smacking, slapping or shaking) is illegal and therefore should never be used. It is permissible to take necessary physical action in an emergency to prevent personal injury, either to the young person, other participants or adults, or serious damage to property
- Participants should not be shouted at directly, though raising of the voice is permissible in instances where it is necessary to be heard

Chess in Schools - FAIR PLAY PROMISE

The Spirit of the Game

Organisers, participants, parents and spectators are reminded that the emphasis is on enjoyment and competing fairly. Competitors must play within the rules of the competition.

All organisers, participants, parents and spectators should be encouraged to:

- Have a calm and controlled approach
- Show respect to all participants
- Thank officials and participants
- Play by the rules and accept decisions
- Use correct language at all times
- Leave the venue as they found it

The Fair Play Criteria:

- Being a good sport
- Consistently good behaviour
- The fair treatment of all players
- Gracious in victory and defeat
- Respect for officials and their decisions

| 28 December - 6 January | Hastings will close out the year with a new style knockout.   |

AWARDS

THE PRESIDENT'S AWARD FOR SERVICES TO CHESS

Mike Bolan

An early member of Ashted Chess Club and has been first team captain for at least 20 years until fairly recently when he stepped down to run the second team. He attends the club every Tuesday and is always on hand to help with new members, advise on team matters and generally keep in touch with what is going on in the chess world. He has been coaching at the junior section of the club at least since 1978 and is unstinting in the effort he puts in to helping juniors, encouraging them to play and to play better.

He is a founder member of Wey Valley Chess, Surrey's primary school chess organisation. He started with the group very close to 1976 when it was set up and probably has not missed a tournament since. This means he must have attended at least 150 Wey Valley events to support players from Danes Hill (the school where he was once Headmaster) and many other children who show an interest in chess. He is a member of the council of EPSCA and has been Vice President and President. He also helps Ian Cowan every year with the selection of the England U11 team and in organising the national and international matches.

Mike very rarely says "no" to a plea for help and with anything connected with chess. This means that he is busy almost every weekend throughout the year supporting one event or another.

Joseph French

Jo has worked tirelessly for Hampshire Chess as a junior organiser and has organised tournaments in Basingstoke-Quick Plays on Sundays at the Bridge and Chess Club and other tournaments at Vyne School until the venue got too expensive. After Richard Boxall sadly died Jo French took over running these tournaments. He has turned out some excellent junior players, e.g. Matthew Harborne who competed in the British Championship in 2003, and has worked hard for Hampshire County Chess. His dedication at county matches, where he sets up all the pieces and his hard work, mean he deserves an award.

Paul Watson

Secretary of the Sussex County Chess association since the 1970's and currently the U150 Sussex match captain. Paul is currently running the U175 Sussex county team because the current captain is unwell. This in addition to running the Holt Club in Sussex for many years.

Paul ran the Open Sussex County team for eighteen years between 1985 and 2003 and in all that time his team never defaulted a game which is a great tribute to an excellent match captain. Paul would always step in to cover a no show and scored some notable wins despite starting well down on the clock.

In addition to the duties of raising a team, Paul organised venues, set up boards, arranged chairs and provided refreshments. On Paul's well earned retirement a match captain of this team he could not get anybody to take on all these tasks that he performed so well and in the end all his jobs were split among four different people with Paul still arranging venues. Another measure of Paul's success is the large number of players who have loyally supported Sussex over many years.

CLUB OF THE YEAR

Alwoodley Chess Club, Norwich Junior Chess Club and The Brown Jack Chess Club

Club of the year was a joint award to Alwoodley Chess Club of Leeds and Norwich Junior Chess Club. Both Clubs submitted excellent submissions and the committee felt that a joint award was justified.

The award for Small Club of the Year went to The Brown Jack Chess Club. A small but successful club based in Swindon. A feature is that there are almost equal numbers of adults and juniors. A club that emphasises that it is a fun club where juniors can mingle with the 180+ players.

BOOK OF THE YEAR AWARD

The choice this year came down to two books of contrasting but great merit. The first is:

My Great Predecessors 2 Gary Kasparov Everyman £25.00

Continues the high standard established in volume 1, which won last years Book of the Year Award. Indeed if anything it is even better as Kasparov is on more familiar ground as he met and played most of the champions discussed in the second volume, which considers Euwe, Botvinnik and Smyslov and Tal, with vignettes on Bronstein and Keres. He is particularly good on his early coach and mentor, Botvinnik writing with great sympathy about that remarkable mans strengths and weaknesses. As before the book is beautifully produced.

The second book is quite different as it concentrates at great length-668 pages in all- on one player.

Pal Benko My Life, Games and Compositions GM Pal Benko and IM Jeremy Silman Siles Press £31.50. It is further subtitled Opening Survey by IM John Watson and Foreword by GM Susan Polgar.

This is a remarkable work. Silman explains that he was dissatisfied with the conventional best game collections and wanted to create a chess biography of a man that he "admired, who was part of chess history, who played many beautiful games, and who lived a colourful life that transcended mere chess concerns-life death struggles, sexuality, financial stability etc". All this and more can be found here and the book paints a vivid picture of Benko's eventful life and times by means of interviews, photographs and stories of the personalities met on the way.

The chess side is also very well covered with 138 annotated games, a description of the evolution of the Benko Gambit by the founder himself and a 132 page survey by John Watson on Benko's contribution to opening theory. Last but not least, the book includes 91 pages on Benko's worldwide reputation as a problem and end game study composer.

No wonder, then, that this book is one of the heaviest chess books the judges have seen- but it is also one of the best.

The choice then was a difficult one; but the judges unanimously selected the Benko volume as it exemplified a new and refreshing approach to chess biography. Gary can console himself that he has another 3 volumes coming out in his My Great Predecessors series, which will surely be in contention for the Book of the Year award in the future.

Shortlist

There have been many excellent textbooks and manuals published this year, but the choice this year goes to four biographies/ game collections, which consider much more than just the games themselves. As can be seen the books are large (two very large), but they are packed with interest as all the authors have a personal passion in their chosen subject and not a page is wasted.

Amos Burn A Chess Biography Richard Forster (McFarland) pp972 £55.50

Amos Burn (1848-1925) was arguably England's strongest player between Staunton and Short. The author covers Burn's chess career and also vividly depicts the Victorian/ Edwardian chess world in which he played, via contemporary anecdotes, reports, annotations and many excellent photographs. The book itself is beautifully printed by McFarland.

My Great Predecessors Part II Gary Kasparov (Everyman) pp480 £25.00

Kasparov moves on to consider Euwe, Botvinnik, Smyslov and Tal. Part One won last year's Book of the Year Award and this volume is even better. Kasparov is particularly good on his old trainer Botvinnik. The book production quality maintains the high standard of its predecessor. Outstanding in every way.

Pal Benko My Life, Games and Compositions Pal Benko and Jeremy Silman (Siles Press) pp668 £31.50

Silman explains that he wanted to create a chess biography of a man that he "admired, who was part of chess history, who played many beautiful games, and who lived a colourful life that transcended mere chess concerns - life and death struggles, sexuality, financial stability etc." All this and more can be found here. In addition John Watson considers Benko's opening contributions in 125 pages and a further 91 pages are devoted to Benko's end game studies. A beautifully printed book that worthily reflects the years of effort that went into it.

Judit Polgar The Princess of Chess Tibor Karolyi (Batsford) pp286 £15.99

A collection of Judit Polgar's best games put together by a writer who was a trainer to the Polgar sisters in their early days. Karolyi makes many interesting observations on the remarkable Polgar family and Hungarian chess. But the games are the thing and the quality of the best of them can hold their own with any in the books above.

BCF MASTER POINTS SYSTEM

BCF Regional Master, County Master and Club Master titles can be awarded to anyone for performances subject to the following requirements: -

1. Events must be played at a normal rate of play and must be affiliated to the BCF via the Game Fee Scheme. Rapidplay games are not eligible for consideration.
2. In order to gain master points, a player must play at least five games in any given event, which can be a tournament or a league, etc. Games decided by forfeit or adjudication, awarded as byes or by any means other than over the board play, cannot be included. Games once started, which are forfeited for whatever reason, shall however be included. Games played against computers are not included:
3. There are three master titles, based on different levels of performance: -

	Performance level	vs a field of av. grade
Regional Master	180 or higher	150 or higher
County Master	160-179	130 or higher
Club Master	130-159	100 or higher

4. A score of at least 40% must be achieved in any event counting towards a title. In order to be awarded the title of Club, County or Regional Master, a player must have at least FIVE performances (norms) at that level.
5. An event of NINE rounds or more counts as two norms.
6. Results supporting a title application must be achieved in events with starting dates that fall within a five-year period.
7. Higher results which have been applied to a lower level title may nonetheless be applied to a higher title at a later date.
8. At least 80% of the opponents encountered in any given event must have established BCF grades. Ungraded opponents will be counted as being of the same grade as the average of the grades of the other opponents met in that event.
9. It is the responsibility of the player to ensure that the certificate provided is completed correctly. Forms can be obtained from John Robinson or be photocopied or printed.
10. Certificates should be sent to John Robinson together with a fee of £15 (£5 for BCF Direct Members). Cheques must be made payable to the BCF

The Officer in charge of the Scheme is John Robinson, 7 Manor Road, Stanion, Kettering, Northants NN14 1DL.

The Smith and Williamson British Chess Championships returned in 2004 to ever-popular Scarborough for the 3rd time in six years for the Centenary Championships of the British Chess Federation.

My report on the 2003 Championship spoke of the decision of the British Isles Co-ordinating Committee to change the qualifying conditions to debar Commonwealth players. As a result of this the Championship events were substantially weaker at every level; indeed many of the players who had demanded a "British-only" Championship were conspicuous by their absence. Michael Adams was expected to compete but his eleventh-hour withdrawal following his World Championship exploits was not unexpected. The result was an extremely open 62 player British (compared to 95 last year) with only one previous winner, Chris Ward, in the field. In Edinburgh the strongest challenge to the Indian players was from home players of Jonathan Rowson, Paul Motwani and Ketevan Arakhamia-Grant. This Scottish theme was continued in 2004 with Jonathan a worthy outright winner scoring 8½/11. Ketevan retained her Women's Title and Paul was again in the prize list. Peter Wells, the only player to defeat Jonathan, was second equal with Simon Williams whose courageous play netted a grandmaster norm. Craig Hanley reached the 2400 needed to confirm his IM title whilst Andrew Greet and Gawain Jones also achieved IM norm results.

Entries overall were 940 compared with 1009 at Edinburgh and can be directly attributed to the decline in British Championship entries and also less players in the Weekenders which were extremely well supported last year. For the first time BCF or other national membership was insisted upon as a condition of entry. I cannot imagine any other national sporting body that would allow non-members to compete and take the titles from members so I was especially pleased that most competitors agreed with this stance. The decision to end the 2004 Grand Prix at the British also seems to be a good one; gone are the days of a huge London Tournament at the end of the year and it seemed proper to complete the Grand Prix here with most of the key competitors turning up to fight out their sections.

In 2001 I can remember watching the eclipse of the sun on the Spa Centre steps, this year the chance of seeing the sun at all was an event in a fortnight dominated by either mist or rain. The sun actually appeared in the middle weekend for both holidaymakers and the Congress Cricket Team. The former benefited rather more than the latter who lost an entertaining match to Bridlington despite a fine 92 from Alec Toll. On now to the Sunday quiz. In one question it was alleged that one Otto Titzling invented the brassiere. Further research on this indicates that this fact, culled from a reputable quiz book and given in Trivial Pursuit, is, in fact, an urban myth of some long-standing. I promise better next time.

Which is an appropriate moment to announce that this, my seventh Championship, is to be my last as Congress Director and indeed as BCF Director of Congress Chess. I do not intend to seek re-election in October. I would like to take this opportunity to thank those who have assisted over the past seven years and indeed remember those such as George Smith, Tony Miles, Frank Hatto and this year Richard Furness who are no longer with us. Finally can I place on record my appreciation to Gareth Pearce and Smith & Williamson for their continued support for this, the flagship event of the British Chess Federation.

36th CHESS OLYMPIAD

14 – 31 October 2004

Olympiads are always great occasions, and with 129 teams in the Open (Men's) and 87 in the Women's this was no exception. So many chess enthusiasts from so many far flung corners of the world is always a heady intoxicating mix.

Each Olympiad has its own pros and cons. The 36th had security you could not fail to miss. The cost of this security must have seriously eaten into the original budget hence shortages and cuts in some areas such as the bussing arrangements, availability of bulletins, no complimentary t-shirt, free coffee and tea and a small but very noticeable missing item, the official pin badge. Maybe after the Madrid bombing and the new international reality we should have not expected anything else. The chess public should be grateful that we are considered worthy of this security coverage. On the plus side there was the excellent weather, the close proximity of the sea and competent hotels with generally very good food.

Already much has been written of both teams performances. The Women's team achieved their best ever result in coming = 6th (on tie-break 8th) well above their seeding. Harriet Hunt put in a plus 2550 performance and a score of 9.5/13 and only missed a medal by one place. A top performance and maybe the best of her career. She was ably supported by Jovanka Houska with Heather Richards and Melanie Buckley also contributing significantly to the effort. In John Emms they had a very diligent and hardworking captain and coach. The result is a fine tribute to their effort. Very well done.

I have been surprised by the reaction to the Open Team performance. Yes it was disappointing to finish 30th but I am not sure that it has deserved some of the press I have read. Maybe we have been spoilt by past performances. Sadly however we are getting older, time controls are getting faster and the younger generation are not choosing to play chess professionally fulltime. What I can say is that team spirit was excellent, Allan Beardsworth as team captain was superb and worked non stop in his duties which even extended to taking us all for two top notch team dinners. And when it is easy to knock the team, may I add that all games were very hard fought with very few short draws which when played to a time limit of 90 minutes with an increment of 30 seconds a move gives you no break. Finishing 30th was certainly not for the lack of trying. Just another 1.5 points would have put us almost in the top 10.

Michael Adams was inspirational. His performance in leading from the front with a score of 10/13 was beyond expectation and rightly earned him a bronze medal on board 1. And what a lot of you don't know is that he played a lot of the middle rounds while ill and on anti-biotics.

I cannot finish without a massive thank you to Deloitte. I was increasingly beginning to despair in finding a sponsor until they stepped in and again thanks is due to Allan Beardsworth who put in over 9 months of hard work looking for a sponsor. Being the International Director without a sponsor is not easy. Also congratulations to the Ukraine and China for winning their respective sections. They were both deserving winners and maybe we are set for a period of domination from the Ukraine with a team where 5 of them are under 25 years of age. It was a historic moment to not witness Russia take gold. The chess press have said we should go for youth. I will certainly be observing them keenly in the next few months as Gothenburg looms. However we must not forget that we have had a golden generation of chess players who have raised our expectations for the last 20 years. This makes disappointment hard to take. Let me put out the challenge to the youngsters to prove themselves worthy of the succession. Finally for me it was a great privilege to be part of the English delegation and I thank you all for your hard effort.

Rupert Jones
BCF International Director

BRITISH CHESS FEDERATION GRAND PRIX 2002/2003

Leonard Barden reports:

Peter Wells has won the BCF Grand Prix and its £5,000 top award after a great finishing spurt. The Abingdon and former Portsmouth GM needed maximums on the final two weekends at the Hertfordshire and London Opens. He scored 4.5/5 at both, and got half point bonuses at each because he met strong 210+ fields. It proved just enough to overhaul the longtime leader IM Danny Gormally by 0.14 of a Grand Prix point.

Two months before the end, Wells looked out of it as he had no maximums while his rivals all had several. But then he won the British Rapidplay, narrowly missed a maximum at Scarborough and made his remarkable sprint, defeating Grand Prix rival GM Mark Hebden in the final round in London.

The Prixette was also decided by a home straight sprint and a photo finish when Meri Lyell's 3/5 in the Hertfordshire Challengers took her total to 63.2, just 0.2 ahead of Selina Khoo. Lyell only began to score Prixette points in July, got married during the competition, and showed consistent form even in Opens.

Selina Khoo put up an impressive performance for a 12-year-old. It's the third time a Khoo has been caught in the final week, it happened twice to her sister Teresa.

WGM Keti Arakhamia-Grant in third place had by far the best percentage and would probably have won had she played one more tournament.

The Junior Prix needed a recount and two decimal places to decide that Craig Hanley had edged out Lorin D'Costa by 0.01 of a point.

Caroline Robson became the first woman to capture the Amateur Prix ahead of all the men, while Dean Hartley and Michael Franklin repeated earlier successes in the Disabled and Senior Prix.

Leonard Barden stepped down as Controller of the Grand Prix at the end of the 2003. The President of the BCF, Gerry Walsh, wishes to express on behalf of the Federation his sincere thanks to Leonard Barden for the work he has done over many years in respect of the Grand Prix.

It is of course quite some time since Leonard found the first sponsor to fund the Grand Prix prize fund and in addition to finding replacements when needed he also managed to process the results which today are substantially more than they were in the beginning all those years ago.

Leonard will be a hard act to follow and we all wish him well for the future.

BRITISH CHESS FEDERATION GRAND PRIX 2004

Neil Graham reports:

Grandmaster Mark Hebden of Leicester won 1st prize of £2,000 in the 2004 British Chess Federation Grand Prix. This is the 5th time that Mark has won the Grand Prix- his last victory came in 2000.

Mark scored a total of 183 points out of a maximum of 200 as follows:-

Bonus Points 2003	20/20
Nottingham Congress	24/24
Coventry International	27/30
Walsall Kipping Rapidplay	16½/18
Portsmouth Congress	38½/42
Blackpool	31½/35
Welsh International (part-score)	25½/31
Total	183/200

He wins the £2000 first prize. Jonathan Rowson who won both the Scottish and British Championships was second and won £800 with International Master Colin Crouch in 3rd place.

Two of England's most promising juniors confirmed their positions with wins at the Smith & Williamson British Championships at Scarborough. Ankush Khandelwal (Nottingham) won the Junior Prix after he scored 7/7 in the British Under 13 Championship whilst Sheila Dines (Croydon) became the Female Prix winner after her victory in the British Under 11 Championship.

The new Graded Prix sections were shared between London and Yorkshire. Capital city players Brendan O'Gorman and Jinwoo Song won the Under 175 and Under 150 sections respectively whilst Richards Desmedt of Wombwell (Sheffield) and Steve Webster (York) were the winners of the Under 125 and Under 100 sections.

Dean Hartley of Chesterfield won the Disabled Prix for a 2nd successive year whilst Clive Pemberton of Birmingham became Senior Grand Prix Champion. All the above players won £200 each.

The Grand Prix was organised and financed by the British Chess Federation. 1075 players recorded qualifying scores. The Grand Prix is 30 years old in 2004 and is without a sponsor for the first time - any organisation interested is asked to contact the British Chess Federation on 01424 775222 or e-mail office@bcf.org.uk.

I.A.P.S. National Chess Championships 2004

The 32nd I.A.P.S. National Chess Championships, held at Aldro School were well supported again this year. We welcomed several new schools including Berkhamstead, Ripley Court and Ridgeway.

The Individual Championship was extremely close this year and won by Charles Court (Aldro). He scored 7/8 in the Championship section. In 2nd = place came Robbie Parker (Twickenham), Andrew Winchcombe (Ridgeway) and Daniel Hunt (Lanesborough) who scored 6½/8. The competition was of a high standard and International Master Andrew Martin was impressed with many of the games. He chose the game played by Sharan Soni (Millfield) against Thomas Hobkinson (Aldro) as the best game of the Championships and the game by Robbie Parker (Twickenham) as the best game in the simultaneous display.

Aldro School achieved a remarkable double winning the Hodgson senior team cup and the David Bull Cup for the best four under 11 players.

This years girls champion was Stephanie Hale from Millfield School and they also won the Girls Team Cup.

As well as the chess all the competitors enjoyed the facilities provided by Aldro and the 5 a-side football competition on the Wednesday evening was particularly popular. On the Tuesday afternoon most of the teams visited Thorpe Park and enjoyed a complete break from the chess.

It is hoped that we will be able to hold the Championships at Aldro next year and any schools who are affiliated to I.A.P.S. will be most welcome.

1st World Senior Team Chess Championship, Isle of Man, 5-12 October 2004

Photograph: Roy Heppinstall, Chief Executive of the British Chess Federation makes the first move for IM Bob Wade (England 2)

Sponsored By Monarch Assurance, the Isle of Man Department of Tourism and Leisure, the British Chess Federation and organised on behalf of FIDE (World Chess Federation). This event formed part of the Centenary Celebrations of the British Chess Federation, with the support of The Friends of Chess, in memory of Harry Golombek, OBE.

As Michael Moyle, High Bailiff of the Isle of Man and a keen chessplayer said, "There are always some problems at the start." For a Senior event these centre around whether players are going to be well enough to turn up. We lost more than a whole team's worth of British players to various ailments. There were five Indians travelling specially for the event. Both Indian women players arrived in London only to find that none of their male compatriots made it. That is why I and the German wife of one of the players in the German team come to be playing for the 'Black and White Magazine' Team. That will be an odd trivial pursuit question in future years. Why no teams from the US or Russia turned up is a mystery. They were offered excellent conditions to play.

Germany and Israel led going into the last round and still led coming out. They both won their matches 4-0. They each scored 26½ points. They drew with each other and won all their other matches. They also had met virtually the same opponents. Seeing this in advance, an agreement was reached that, if by the end of Round 7, it was all equal, then Buchholz tie-break would not be used. In this tie-break system you add together the scores that your opponents achieved. It is totally ridiculous. In 1980 we had the spectacle of Greece playing Scotland to determine which of Hungary and the USSR should get the gold medals. Here it was agreed that both teams would split the prize money and both would get gold medals. A very much more sensible solution. I was even able to get the extra medals at one day's notice. Thus Germany and Israel took the gold and Switzerland the bronze. Italy were fourth on tie break from England 1.

The top two matches were hard fought but Switzerland agreed a package draw with England 2 so as to ensure the bronze medals. England 1 managed to powerhouse their way to a 4-0 victory against Chessmann, but it was too late even to reach their seeding position. Neville Gill on board 1 for the local team was particularly upset that he had managed to lose a piece in 20 moves. "How could I do that," he cried. In my personal experience, only too easily. There comes the time and there comes the man. In this case, the man was me. I drew with the strong but unrated Australian board one. He offered me a draw, but another game was finishing. I played on a few more moves and got to play the last move of the competition. Every player got at least a participation medal. Many did better than that. The event at The Ocean Castle Hotel in Port Erin, Isle of Man, was generously supported by Monarch Assurance, The Isle of Man Special Events Department, The Friends of Chess and the British Chess Federation. It was played under the auspices of the World Chess Federation, FIDE.

JUNIOR CHESS

1. Again pleased to report that a record number of juniors achieved international honours. We were represented in all age groups, supported by professional coaches and qualified/experienced group leaders & head of delegation.
2. Teams entered in all major Junior International tournaments, travel & accommodation satisfactory and in most cases of a very high standard.
3. Selected juniors again invited to submit playing data for analysis thereby possible to monitor improvements and identify 'new kids on the block'. Network of 'trusted' talent spotters submit names for consideration on a 'confidential' basis.
4. Financial support available on an individual basis by negotiation. ALL juniors supported at the Smith & Williams Young Masters, which is one of the major tournaments giving norm and international rating opportunities.
5. Accredited coaches listed in the Yearbook and on the BCF Web Page.
6. The Certificate of Excellence continues its progress. Has become an essential element of the 'Chess in Schools Project', a new initiative developed in co-operation with the Department of Education & Skills.
7. Organised a regional Megafinal of the UK Chess Challenge. Supported the Challenge in local schools and recommended it to others.
8. Organised a junior team in the 4NCL. The 4NCL now has four divisions and many more juniors are participating.
9. The 'Pontins' tournament for school teams at Under 12, 14 & 16 continues to develop. Helps to give youngsters moving into the secondary school sector a chance to continue playing school chess.
10. Very difficult to gauge trends BUT UK Chess Challenge reports record numbers and I have experienced a significant increase in requests for help & advice in setting up school chess clubs.
11. In regular contact and consultation with other junior organisations and organisers.

New developments/initiatives in the last year

- Chess in Schools Project agreed with theDfES
- Team represented England in the European Community Championships for the first time.
- A player accepted the scholarship to attend the Ampleforth 6th Form College.
- Ampleforth have extended the contract to support the Ampleforth Junior Masters.
- BCF worked with ZEE TV (Asian TV Network) on a programme about junior chess.
- Certificate of Excellence exceeded 1,500 youngsters entering the examinations, in one year, for the first time.
- Woodbridge School in Suffolk appoint a full-time Chess Master.
- A team from Woodbridge School represented England in the European Schools' Championships.
- 4th Division introduced in the 4NCL – provides many opportunities for increased junior participation.

Looking to the future

I have thoroughly enjoyed my time as Director of Junior Chess but feel that now is a good time to retire. I believe that I leave the relationships between the BCF and junior players, their parents, other junior organisations and organisers in a very healthy state, perhaps the best it has even been. There is mutual trust and respect between the various parties and a willingness to plan and work together in the future. I wish the incoming Director all the very best.

Pleasant to finish, in a year, when we have won the Glorney & Faber Cups and the European Union Under 12 Girls Championships.

Many thanks to everyone for help and support.

4th AMPLEFORTH JUNIOR MASTERS

Ampleforth College, North Yorkshire, 30th October - 2nd November 2003

TOP JUNIORS BID TO JOIN AMPLEFORTH'S 1ST CHESS SCHOLAR

THE CHALLENGE of a chess competition offering the winner a prize worth more than £20,000, including a two-year scholarship at Ampleforth College, drew the game's leading British youngsters of both sexes to the North Yorkshire school in October. It is the biggest prize in British chess.

Between 80 and 100 of the country's top chess talents, aged as young as eight, were welcomed to the Catholic independent school by its first chess scholar, Chetan Deva, 17. He earned his scholarship award to the school's mixed sixth form in the same tournament, the Ampleforth Junior Masters, in its first year in 2000, when aged 14. The tournament brings together the top-ranked under 16 chess players from across the UK, and is the only event granting the winner automatic qualification for the 2004 British Chess Championship for an under 16 year old. It has prize money of £3000+, £1000 of it for the winner.

A special feature of this championship is that if two or more players tie for first place, a blitz play-off will take place for the Ampleforth trophy and scholarship, and championship qualification. This year was the first occasion that a play-off was required. A most exciting spectacle, with Thomas Pym being the eventual winner.

Ready for the deciding blitz play-off. Father Gabriel, soon to become Headmaster at Ampleforth, and chess enthusiast Father Justine enjoy the countdown to a thrilling encounter.

Thomas Pym receiving the Ampleforth trophy from retiring Headmaster Father Leo last year.

5th AMPLEFORTH JUNIOR MASTERS

Ampleforth College, North Yorkshire - 28-31 October 2004

Peter Turner says: "The Ampleforth Junior Masters goes from strength to strength and is the major championship for British juniors. Unlike any other tournament, it attracts the top young talents; nine of the players are current British Champions. The incentive to win is as much about players' reputations as about the generous and imaginative support from Ampleforth College; it also creates all the conditions of top-level competition, vital experience for tomorrow's grand masters. This year, immediately after the tournament, five of the players will fly out to Crete to compete in the World Youth Chess Championships. In total, seventeen of the competitors have represented their country at World or European Championships. A truly magnificent display of the best of British junior chess. The BCF Director of Coaching and Head of Chess at Millfield School, Grandmaster Matthew Turner was on hand to support the players. Matthew's vision six years ago to create a premier junior tournament was realised thanks to the support of Ampleforth College."

COUNTIES U18 TEAM CHAMPIONSHIPS

Last year, the ladies event was held at St Peter & Paul Syston, Leicester. It was so successful that it was decided to hold both events there this year. After very late withdrawals, the event settled down to 6 teams in the Open and 3 in the girl's section. The event was opened by Ms Fiona Buchan, headmistress of the school, who welcomed the players. The Chief Controller was John Robinson from Corby. After Round one of the Open, the scores were Warwicks 10, Lancs 9½, Lincolnshire 5½, Leicester and Manchester both on 5 and Derby on 1. The exciting second round saw team managers checking and re checking board counts. After the very last game to finish, with seconds on the clock, Lancashire has scored 21, Warwicks 20½, Manchester 12½, Lincolnshire 9, Leicestershire 8 and Derbyshire 1. The last three teams did exceptionally well. Lincolnshire had the distinction of being organised by one of the players, Michael Jones. Leicestershire were the youngest team, and Derbyshire make their return after an absence of 20 years.

The girls saw two strong teams, Surrey and Wilts battle each other and a very young Leicestershire team gain much experience. Surrey scored a total of 11 points, and Wiltshire 7 to gain the two titles on offer.

The prizes were presented by Roy Heppinstall and Cyril Johnson, who deputised for Peter Turner.

EUROPEAN COMMUNITY YOUTH CHAMPIONSHIPS UNDER 10's, 12's, 14's & 16's

Mureck, Austria – 22nd August to 1st September

Congratulations to the European Union Under 12s Girls Champion 2004, Sheila Dines. Owners and staff at the Restaurant Fabiani near Mureck made sure we celebrated Sheila's success with a party on the last evening. Many thanks to Rosemarie & Marc Fabiani and Rudi for looking after us so magnificently during our stay. We hope the Championship is in Mureck again next year.

BCF NATIONAL SCHOOLS CHAMPIONSHIP 2003/2004

Nottingham Moat House – 26th June 2004

The Finals (plus semi-finals and Third Place Playoff) were held on Saturday 26th June 2004 at the pleasant venue of the Nottingham Moat House. The rival attraction was meetings of the BCF Council and Management Board taking place at the same time on an upper floor. The chess gained slightly more from this, in terms of spectators, than the meetings did.

The Arbiter was David Welch (BCF Chief Arbiter). The Best Game Prize (judged by Graham Lee) went to Jac Thomas of Monmouth School for a remarkable win out of clear skies against Lakshman Ruthirapathy of Haberdashers Askes in the Championship Final. The runners-up prize went to the loser. As the judge remarked, it takes two to make a Best Game.

SCHOOL AWARD

With funds provided by the generosity of the late Sir George Thomas (now administered by the British Chess Educational Trust) the British Chess Federation annually awards shields to schools which have shown outstanding achievements or enthusiasm in chess. Commencing 1982 inscribed chess boards have been substituted for shields. Recommendations for awards should be forwarded (via the appropriate Union if in England, or via the national organisations for Scotland or Wales) to the Secretary of the British Chess Educational Trust by 30th April each year.

The following schools hold shields or boards:

The National Correspondence Chess Club was founded in 1932 as a friendly club and is proud that it continues to flourish in the same fashion today. Players of all strengths are welcome. The Continuous Tournament is the main event and caters for as many opponents as one wishes to play. Games start at any time during the year. The Championship Tournament provides the Club Champion. League Tournaments, All-Play-All, Knock-Out, Special Opening, Team and E-mail Tournaments are also run. Matches against other clubs, including overseas clubs, are played. Membership at present stands at 200. A free monthly magazine is provided and entry to all tournaments is also free. Annual subscription is £12.00 with discount for those under 18 or over 65 years of age.

Social Correspondence Chess Association

Founded 1940 Affiliated to the British Federation of Correspondence Chess

President: Professor Michael Furnston

Secretary: Chris Dowell, 19 Field Top, Bailiffe Bridge, Brighouse HD6 4EQ. Tel: 01484 710368

Annual subscription is £5.00 which includes free entry to any of the club's tournaments throughout the year. Established over 50 years ago, the SCCA has always remained, as a matter of policy, fairly small and membership currently at about 100. The aim of the club is to provide postal chess played in a friendly and sociable atmosphere. A range of tournaments is offered - championship, league, selective openings, knock-outs etc, with prizes usually in the form of tokens. The Club also offers a wide variety of team chess both at home and abroad and members are invited to take part irrespective of playing ability. The club publishes its own magazine, Checkmate, which contains results, news, games and other information, sent free to members four times a year. Enquiries are welcomed from players of all strengths.

International postal and email chess

All BFCC Vice-Presidents and all members of BFCC's member organisations are eligible to play internationally in tournaments for players of all abilities organized by ICCF. Full details can be found from the BFCC website, or by contacting the International Secretary (address above).

CHESS COMPOSITION NEWS

by John Rice

Winton Capital British Chess Solving Championship 2003-4

While it's true that GM Jonathan Mestel has been a frequent winner of this event, he doesn't come first every time. The Final of this year's Championship was actually won by an overseas competitor, Dolf Wissmann of the Netherlands, but the top British solver, and therefore British Champion, was IM David Friedgood, with 52 points out of 60, one ahead of Jonathan and some distance ahead of Colin McNab (49), Paul Cumbers (47.5) and FM Michael McDowell (47.25). The scoring system is such that a single slip in the first round (direct-mate 2-movers) can cost a competitor 5 marks. If Michael had not got one tricky 2-mover wrong, he would have pipped David to the post by a quarter of a mark!

The Championship, generously sponsored by Winton Capital Management, had begun in the summer of 2003 with the publication in various outlets of a starter problem specially composed to attract solvers. Those getting it right were then invited to tackle a further set of problems and submit their solutions by post. The top solvers from this round made it through to the Final, held in the spacious Barraclough Hall at Oakham School and hosted by the resident chess guru GM Graham Lee, who also competed hors concours and scored 46 points. Brian Stephenson was in overall charge of the event. Full details can be found on his website (www.bstephen.freeuk.com), together with problems set in previous years and information about the current Championship.

World Chess Solving Championship, Halkidiki (Greece), September 2004

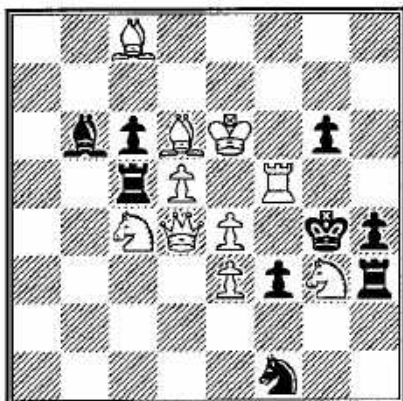

It is customary for the winner of the British Championship to represent the country, if availability allows, at the World Championship. David Friedgood thus joined Jonathan Mestel and John Nunn in the British team for 2004, with Colin McNab as reserve. Winton Capital providing funding. It is a pleasure to report that the team achieved its best result for many years, taking 2nd place behind a strong team from Israel. Not only that, but John Nunn became World Solving Champion and gained the Grandmaster title. Both are signal achievements deserving warm congratulations. John's success was reported widely in chess columns in the national press. He and Jonathan Mestel, who took 7th place in the WCSC, are Great Britain's only double Grandmasters – over-the-board and solving. Colin McNab also gained the FIDE Master title. The event was held in the Athos Palace Hotel in Kallithea (Halkidiki, Greece) in early September. Perfect conditions for solving (in contrast to the previous year in the Moscow Chess Club), combined with superb organisation by the Greek hosts, made for an excellent event, which on this occasion had a highly experienced Director in Brian Stephenson.

7th World Chess Compositions Tournament

The results of the 7th WCCT were announced last May. Great Britain took 11th place in this fiercely contested event, which was won by Russia, with Ukraine 2nd and Israel 3rd. 38 countries competed. British team-leader Christopher Reeves had ensured that there was a full British entry of 21 compositions (3 in each of 7 sections). One of the entries that gained points for Great Britain was the following 2-mover by David Shire, who ranks among the country's most talented and successful composers.

David Shire

20th place, 7th WCCT section A, 2003-4

White to play and mate in 2 moves

Solution: Key 1.Kf7, threatening 2.Rh5. If 1...Rxd5 2.Rxd5 (not 2.e5? or 2.Ne5?); if 1...cxd5 2.exd5 (not 2.Ne5? or 2.Re5?); if 1...gxf5 2.Qg7 (not 2.Re5? or 2.e5?) – these three lines of play show triple avoidance: White appears to have 3 possible mating moves, but positive action by Black ensures that each time only one of them works. Two further variations show dual avoidance: 1...Rxd5 2.Rxd5 (not 2.exd5?), and 1...cxd5 2.exd5 (not 2.Rxd5?). Three more variations complete a most attractive composition: 1...f2 2.Qd1; 1...gxf5 2.Qg7; and 1...g5 2.Rf6.

British Chess Problem Society

This Society, open to chess enthusiasts in all countries, has been in existence since 1918. Monthly meetings are held at the Chadwick Street Recreation Centre in central London throughout most of the year, and there is a Residential Weekend around Easter, usually held outside the London area. Members of the Society can attend the monthly meetings and may also borrow books from the extensive BCPS Library. Six times a year each Society member receives two magazines, The Problemist and its Supplement (the latter aimed at newcomers) and all this for the very reasonable subscription of £18 per annum (£15 for one's first year, and half price for under-21s). Enquiries should be addressed to the Society's Hon. Treasurer, Tony Lewis, 16 Cranford Close, Woodmancote, Cheltenham GL52 9QA. A specimen copy of The Problemist (editor John Rice) and the Supplement will be sent on request. Hon. Secretary of the BCPS is Christopher Jones, 11 Severn Grange, Ison Hill Road, Henbury, Bristol BS10 7QA. In particular, the Society would like to hear from juniors with an interest in the wider aspects of chess. Problems and studies are undeniably a different world, but their appeal is universal, and they can be enjoyed at any time of the day or night and without the need to travel to a chess club in search of an opponent.

As in 2003, the BCPS Residential Weekend was held in Scotland, on the edge of the Highlands in Pitlochry. Well over 40 chess problemists from Great Britain and overseas were there to enjoy a number of lectures, solving contests and composing tourneys. One of the lectures, by John Rice, presented some problems that had gained prizes in the annual tourneys which the British Chess Federation sponsored from 1930 to 1980. Among them was the following 3-mover by the late Gerald Anderson, one of the country's foremost composers of the 20th century.

G.F.Anderson

1st prize, BCF Tourney 26, 1938

Key 1.Qe5, with the threat of 2.Qe3 and 3.Nxg2/Bf3/Bg4/Bh5, and if 2...Nxd5 or 2...Nc2, then 3.Nf3. Black can defend against this threat in a number of subtle ways, for instance by opening the line from a4 to f4: 1...Nd3 or 1...Nc6 2.Nc4+ b4 3.N(x)d3; or 1...Nxd5 2.Bg4+ Qe4 3.Nd3. If 1...Bxf2, White continues 2.Nxg2+ Kxd2 3.Qb2, with a switchback of the key-piece. The black King has two flight-squares after the key, but if the King moves to either of them, White has a checking reply: 1...Kxd2 2.Qb2+ (switchback again) Ke1 3.Nd3; and 1...Kxf2 2.Ne4+ Ke3 2.Bb6 (this mating move is a lovely touch), or 2...Ke1 3.Qc3. Finally, any move by the Nh2 allows 2.N(x)f3+ Kxf2 3.Nh3. Altogether a masterly piece of work which repays detailed study.

Brian Harley Award for 3-movers, 2000-02

Brian Harley was for many decades the chess editor of The Observer. He is remembered through an award made every few years for 2-movers or 3-movers by British composers and published in the UK. The 3-move award for 2000-02 was won by a problem by John Rice that was placed first in a composing match between Great Britain and the USA. This was reproduced on page 93 of the BCF Yearbook 2003. On the same page was a problem by Don Smedley that was a runner-up for this award. Here is another 3-mover that came close.

John Rice

1st prize, The Problemist 2000

The point of this problem lies in the relationship between the play that occurs after a close try by White (a move that almost solves but is refuted by one black move) and what happens after the correct first move, the key. If White were to try 1.Nca4?, he would threaten 2.Rc4+ (not 2.Rd3+?) dxc4 3.Bc3. Black could defend by 1...Rxc6, when White would continue 2.Rd3+ exd3 3.Qf4; but the black defence 1...Rxf2! has no reply. So instead White must play 1.Nba4, and now the threat is different: 2.Rd3+ (not 2.Rc4+?) exd3 3.Bc3. Black has various defences: 1...Rf3 2.Rc4+ 2.dxc4 3.Qd6; 1...Rf4 2.Qxf4 (threatening 3.Rd3) Bf6+ 3.Qxf6; 1...Rd6+ 2.Qxd6 (3.Rc4); and 1...Rxf2 2.Qxf2+ Ke5 3.Bc7 – and this is why 1.Nba4 works and 1.Nca4 doesn't: the white Bishop is able to play to c7 after the black King has escaped to e5.

White to play and mate in 3 moves

The Problemist

The magazine of the British Chess Problem Society is mentioned above. During the past year it has contained, among many other items of national and international interest, an article by David Shire on the problems of Christopher Jones, one of the country's leading composers of helpmates. In this genre of problem, Black plays first and helps White to reach a mating position. Christopher specialises in helpmates in 3 moves or more. Here is one of his recent award-winners, a twin setting in which a slight change to the diagram position (switch of black King to e5) must be made to produce a second solution.

Christopher Jones
1st prize, Orbit 2003

Helpmate in 3 moves
(a) Diagram; (b) BK to e5

The solution to the diagram position runs (black moves shown first):
1.Qg4 Bxg7 (not 1...Bf6?) 2.Ne5 Bf6 3.Kd4 Rxc4. First the pinned black Queen moves along the pin-line to a square on which she will eventually be captured, in so doing opening a line required by the white Bishop. However, this Bishop cannot play immediately to its destination because of the need to play a tempo-move on move 2. Black closes the Bishop's line of guard to d4 so that the black King can move to this square to allow the mate. The solution to part (b), with the black King on e5 and the black Queen therefore pinned diagonally, is completely analogous: 1.Qb2 Ra4 (not 1...Rb4?) 2.Rc4 Rb4 3.Kd4 Bxb2. This very fine example of the composer's art is typical of the unusual effects that can be achieved in help-play. It is effects such as these that give chess problems their appeal.

Endgame studies

Quarterly meetings of the Chess Endgame Study Circle continue to be held at the house of John Roycroft in London NW9, where visitors are welcome; the atmosphere is always informal and the discussion "no-holds-barred". The death of Walter Veitch in July was a sadness, alleviated by memories of his inimitable contributions to the studies magazine EG, notably to the analytical Spotlight section that he made his own. Among the few books that Walter did not discard were two gifted to him and autographed by the classic Russo-Ukrainian composer Tigran Gorgiev. The other quarterly, British Endgame Study News, the product of John Beasley's energies, usually has just eight pages, but is generally accompanied by a supplement whose content ranges beyond these shores. Timothy Whitworth has recently enhanced his formidable international reputation as a scholar of the study classics by publishing the revised edition of his Leonid Kubbel's Chess Endgame Studies, now the definitive complete collection, with no fewer than 440 studies, of this pioneer Russian composer in the player-friendly genre.

Membership is open to visually handicapped people. Associate membership is open to sighted supporters.

Its aims and objectives are to encourage and support the playing of chess by blind and partially sighted people; to give blind and partially sighted people the self-confidence to integrate into chess clubs and events not confined to the visually handicapped. Activities include the organisation of over the board tournaments for players of all strengths and participation in international events and chess holidays. The Association organises postal competitions in which moves are sent either in Braille, on tape or by e-mail; manages a comprehensive programme of junior development; runs a library of chess material on tape available on free loan to all members, and in Braille available on free loan to members resident in the British Isles; offers an advice service on chess matters including chess computers and software suitable for use by blind people; keeps members informed by quarterly newsletter available in Braille, print, large print, tape and e-mail. Annual subscription: Members and Associate Members £7.00; Life Membership - £70.00

Visually handicapped people under the age of 21, ordinarily resident in the UK receive free Membership, free entry into events run by the BCA, and other concessions.
