

Foreword

Dear Chess Friends.

Our first full year of English Chess Federation has finished and we embark on the second year with many new Directors elected to the Board.

The year was overshadowed by the illness of Chief Executive Roy Heppinstall who was out of action for some considerable time. I am pleased to report that Roy has made a remarkable recovery and is continuing to dedicate his time to work for chess.

We are indebted to Cyril Johnson who stepped in to cover Roy's workload in addition to his own busy schedule.

Rupert Jones (International) Cyril Johnson (Junior) Roy Lawrence (Marketing) Chris Majer (Home) and Geoff Steele (Acting Finance Director) had each decided to step down from the Board and we thank them all for their service to English Chess. Roy Heppinstall and Cyril were both in contested posts at October and lost to new candidates.

The Federation therefore has a new Board and we welcome Chief Executive Martin Regan, Finance Director Robert Richmond, International Director Peter Sowray, Junior Director Claire Summerscale and Marketing Director Peter Wilson. Mike Truran and John Wickham were both re-elected as Non Executive Directors.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank David Jarrett for his outstanding service as a Trustee of the Permanent Invested Fund and to congratulate him on his appointment as Executive Director of FIDE. We welcome Ray Edwards who replaces David as a Trustee.

I would like to mention a few issues that will have a significant impact on the future of English Chess Federation.

The bequest from the late John Robinson is incredible and the trustees look forward to dispersing the interest raised in the best possible manner. The Federation is indebted to John's cousins and executors David and Shelia Ingyon and also David Anderton for their efforts to achieve a speedy and very successful outcome.

The decision by Her Majesty's Government to amend The Charities Bill could have far reaching benefits and we await further progress.

The Library is now in place at the University of Brighton in Hastings and we hope to have an official opening ceremony in the Spring of 2007. Cynthia Gurney, our Manager at the office in Battle together with the university staff at Hastings deserve our congratulations.

Last but definitely not least, a very big thank you to all of the office staff, for their unfailing support throughout a very difficult year, they have coped with a very heavy workload superbly.

Gerry Walsh
ECF President

The past year has been a difficult one for the office staff at Battle, with additional duties on all fronts but with the same level of staffing. However everything is progressing well and the National Chess Library has developed in leaps and bounds. To help us make this the greatest Chess Library in the world please consider donating or bequeathing your own collection.

There have been many changes in the chess world in recent months and I can only liken the ECF office to the civil service, policies may change but the work carries on.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE'S REPORT

Past Chief Executive's Report

As many of you will be aware I was unable to be active during an appreciable part of the year due to illness. I am extremely grateful to the members of the Board and Cyril Johnson in particular for ensuring that the necessary tasks were performed.

A number of events placed a considerable burden on the office staff this year. The administration associated with becoming a Company Limited by Guarantee, with the various membership schemes and with assuming responsibility for the entries for the British Championship has been onerous and the staff are to be congratulated on their performance.

There have been a number of successes during the year, which are reported in the individual Directors' reports. One particular example of the culmination of long patient work of a group whose activities were not obvious to many is the influence of the ECF Charities Legislation Working Party – the recent amendment to the Charities Bill on the definition of sport is extremely welcome. This is typical of the very many people who voluntarily spend so much time and effort organising activities at local, county, union, national and international levels to the great benefit of chess throughout the country.

I wish the new Board success in its endeavours to take the ECF forward into 2007, which will no doubt be as busy and challenging as ever.

Roy Heppinstall
Chief Executive (2003-2006)

Acting Chief Executive's Report

It has been unfortunate that Roy was taken ill just after Easter this year, as his calm analysis of the situation would have been of great benefit. As it was, I was asked to take over, a task which defines daunting.

The ECF is still an infant, a healthy, growing infant with all the problems associated with the early stage of development. Good contacts were developed with the Central Council for Physical Recreation, whose premises we have been pleased to use and with whom we have had valuable discussions about clearing volunteers under the CRB scheme.

I would like to thank the other directors for their support, and those managers who assisted me, David Welch, and Harriet Hunt in particular. Some duties are pleasant, such as opening the British Championships in Swansea and being able to thank all the volunteers for their hard work. Some are much less pleasant, such as representing the ECF at the funeral of Jessie Gilbert, whom we shall all miss.

I wish Martin Regan success in taking over an interesting yet demanding job and I hope you all give him the support he deserves.

Cyril Johnson
Acting Chief Executive (2006)

Present Chief Executive's Report

As I write this, I have been in post for little over a month. It has quickly become apparent to me that the scale of the challenges facing the Federation, both day to day and in a strategic sense, could easily overwhelm all but the most focused board.

The ECF has gone through major changes over the past two years and I do get the sense of an organisation at a crossroads. We can move boldly forward or we can refight the old battles. I believe most chess players would opt for the former.

The current ECF Board contains many new faces and I am excited at the prospect of working with them all.

I would like to thank my predecessors, Roy Heppinstall and Cyril Johnson, who have done so much to bring the Federation to the point where it can, if it chooses, look to the future rather than the past.

Martin Regan
Chief Executive (2006 -)

DIRECTORS' REPORTS

FINANCE

The accounts for the year show a small surplus of £2,000. My thanks to Geoff Steele for stepping in following my, as it turned out, temporary resignation, and for compiling the accounts. These were particularly difficult this year, with the change from BCF to ECF, requiring 3 sets of accounts BCF, ECF and combined. It is the combined version of the income and expenditure that is published.

The outlook for the coming two years is not good, following the loss of sponsorship of the British Championship and other reasons. A large increase in fees seems inevitable for 2007/8.

HOME CHESS

County Championships

At the start of the season, we lacked a controller for this event. David Lettington was appointed in mid-season but then resigned for personal reasons. Julie Johnson very kindly stepped into the breach on a purely temporary basis and ensured that the remainder of the competition ran smoothly. I am very grateful to her for her assistance. Unfortunately, the post is now again vacant. There were an unusually number of withdrawals; perhaps partly due to confusion of arrangements due to the resignation of David Lettington and perhaps partly due to difficulties with arranging teams at the time of the Football World Cup.

The County Championships were again held at Ratcliffe College on 1st July. The attractions of the TV showing the England match in the refreshment area proved too much for some and there were a number of short draws. The Open Championship was an all-SCCU affair between perennial finalists Essex and Kent (Essex being the underdogs on grading). The match was closely contested all-day and it was only with the last game that Essex emerged triumphant $8\frac{1}{2}$ - $7\frac{1}{2}$. The Minor Counties Championship saw Norfolk make a hat trick of wins by defeating Surrey also in a closely contested match. In the U175, Devon were the defending champions. They had the misfortune that two players didn't turn-up and were also outgraded. Nevertheless, the scale of Sussex's victory ($12\frac{1}{2}$ to $3\frac{1}{2}$.) was unexpected. The U150s saw Yorkshire comfortably defeat Cambridgeshire 10-6. While the U125 saw another close finish with Bedfordshire edging out Warwickshire $8\frac{1}{2}$ - $7\frac{1}{2}$. Finally, the U100 also saw a close finish in which Kent narrowly edged out Norfolk $6\frac{1}{2}$ - $5\frac{1}{2}$. The prizes were presented by Roy Heppinstall, the ECF CEO with assistance from Cyril Johnson and myself. The catering was done by the firm of Johnson and Johnson and the control team was Messrs Shaw, Elwin, Hewitt and Johnson.

The rules for the county championship are in need of a re-write (to improve clarity and capture custom and practice as opposed to changing anything). Any volunteers?

National Club

This year's national club rapidplay (handicap) competition was held once again at Magdalen College School, Oxford on Sunday 23th April and was sponsored by Clever Cloks Products. 12 teams of 4 entered. The event was won convincingly by Cowley who were ranked 5th, but would have won even without the handicap system. Mike Flatt controlled, Tim Thurstan was the arbiter and Goeff Kendall took the entries.

The national club finals were held on 9th July, with the Minor events at Syston and the Major and Open at Golden Lane Community Centre (courtesy of London Chess League and Brian Smith). The date clashed with the World Cup Final, life was made even more difficult for Maidstone by the fact that they had to field three teams on the same day. The Golden Lane half of the event was controlled by Scott Freeman, who had little to do. In the Open, Wood Green fielded an impressive array of GMs and IMs and perhaps not surprisingly triumphed fairly easily. Wood Green have now won the Open twelve times, eclipsing even Cambridge University who have won it eleven times. On paper the Major, was going to be a close contest. In fact Bedford ran out winners fairly easily. In the Major Plate, Milton Keynes narrowly won 3-2 over Maidstone. Outgraded by a massive 66 points per board the Maidstone team deserve every-praise for their determined effort to discredit the grading system. In the Minor, Maidstone showed tactical player placement (their Minor team was stronger than the corresponding team in the Major Plate) and duly reaped the benefits with a narrow victory. Finally, in the Minor Plate there was again a close contest with Ashfield edging out Westcliff.

Arbiters

The changeover from BCF to ECF provided the opportunity to update the regulations concerning arbiters and new requirements including CRB clearance have been introduced (these can be found on the ECF website). The first batch of newly-appointed ECF Arbiters can be found elsewhere in this Yearbook.

Grading

The 2006 ECF Grading List was published on the web on 23 July, comfortably on schedule. The number of events not received in time for inclusion shows no significant change from last year. Due to the efforts of the Database Administrator (Richard Haddrell) several of the outstanding results were obtained in sufficient time for them to be included in the revised version of the list, upon which the printed list was based. This was sent to the printer on schedule prior the end of August.

It has been decided to produce a six-monthly Rapidplay grading list, to be published on the web only, in January 2007. If this is successful the opinion of Council will be sought in April 2007 on the desirability of publishing the standardplay list every six months.

A statistical study of the accuracy of the grading system has been instigated. At present the results of this are exciting considerable controversy within the grading team (and indeed on various chess discussion forums), and it would be premature to prejudge the outcome of the studies.

Grand Prix

The ECF Council determined in April 2006 that the 2006-7 Grand Prix would be run on a reduced number of sections - U175, U150, U125, U100 and junior, with a 1st prize of £200 & 2nd prize of £50 off entry to the 2008 British Championship. The new Grand Prix will use the Grading system to determine the prize winners greatly reducing the administration of the event.

Level of Chess Activity Nationally

The level of chess activity nationally (based on the last seven years Grading Master lists) is as follows.

No of Results	Standard Play	Rapid play
1999/2000 season	213, 283	68, 559
2000/2001 season	203, 686	71, 128
2001/2002 season	208, 500	71, 651
2002/2003 season	207, 019	86, 741
2003/2004 season	206, 295	96, 043
2004/2005 season	208, 369	64, 088
2005/2006 season	201, 539	69, 066
Number of players with published Grading
1999/2000 season	12, 572
2000/2001 season	12, 488
2001/2002 season	12, 261
2002/2003 season	12, 468
2003/2004 season	12, 812
2004/2005 season	12, 237
2005/2006 season	11, 873

It is difficult to determine with any confidence whether chess playing is in decline, since there is a year-to-year fluctuation of events (re)entering or dropping out of the Game Fee/Grading systems. It is possible that the numbers show an underlying annual decrease of about 1% over the last six years. Note that chess activity and number of games graded were much higher circa 1993-4 at the time of the Short boom and prior to the time when Yorkshire ran its own Grading system.

Conclusions

Finally, my thanks to all that have supported me during this year and in particular to the ECF Office.

C E Majer
Director of Home Chess

INTERNATIONAL

It has been a difficult year. Like many others it is the trio of wonderful people we have lost that defines the year. I am proud to have been International Director when Jessie Gilbert got her chance to play for England. That debut came in Gothenburg in August 2005 and what a delight she was to have in the team. I also know that she considered it a privilege to play for her country and then in May at the Turin Olympiad she got her second opportunity, this time on board 2 where she scored 50%. Earlier she had achieved her third WIM norm in the European Individual. She was fast becoming a strong player and would no doubt have soon been strong enough to get into a full strength England Women's Team. I send the family my deepest condolences. Then there was Steve Boniface and John Robinson. Steve conducted the 'Arbiters course' that Doncaster organised in September 2002 and which I attended. He was a fine teacher and I passed with 87%. We had a few battles on occasions especially involving the White Rose. I am only sorry that I did not see him arbiting in an Olympiad. John Robinson was just simply one of the sweetest people I had ever met. I know that he was distressed over Steve's death and that this may have played a part in his own rapid deterioration. And what a generous leaving gift to the Federation. The chess community needs to put in procedures to make sure that for our friends who live alone we do not take over a week to find out there is a problem as happened with Steve and Michael Kobulka.

This will also be my final year as the International Director. I feel that after three years of doing the job it is time to give my son who is now aged 10 more free weekends. Peter Sowray will make an excellent International Director and I will be there to give my support and assistance should he ever require it.

Team England

May 2006 saw the England Open and Women's Team participate in the 37th Chess Olympiad, (20 May – 5 June) in Turin, Italy. As a result of some very good work by Peter Wells, who managed to persuade David Norwood to financially help out, we were able to select a team with both Michael Adams and Nigel Short. A big thank you must be expressed to David Norwood for his extremely generous contribution of £10,000. Also a big thank you to the ECF who provided the bulk of the rest of the money for players' fees as well as to the private donors who put in over £4,000. As a result the selectors had almost the strongest possible side in which to select the open team, the exception being Luke McShane, who was exam tied. Apart from the above two also selected were Jon Speelman, Danny Gormally, Stuart Conquest and Nick Pert. The Women's team suffered due to the unavailability of Harriet Hunt, Susan Lalic, Heather Richards and Melanie Buckley. Nevertheless a team mixing experience and youth was selected and it consisted of Jovanka Houska, Jessie Gilbert, Jana Bellin and Sophie Tidman. Captaining the Open team for the second time was Allan Beardsworth and Mark Hebden the Women's team.

The final result was ok and certainly an improvement on Calvia where the team scored plus 6. This time it was plus 9 and as a result we dragged ourselves back into the top twenty from a starting field of 148 teams. Sadly however we could not get everyone firing. Our middle order of Jon Speelman and Danny Gormally struggled and this is reflected in the poor return from board 3. This cost us a top ten finish. There is no more graphic interpretation of this than in the fact that England won 8 matches and only lost 3. And yet most of those matches were won by 2.5-1.5 margins and lost by the same margin with boards 1,2 and 4 scoring. This was why we never met any team in the top ten and yet why we finished with three straight wins.

Adams and Short were exemplary in their play, both scored 8/11. Michael did not feel he was in best form and yet he fought; often playing games of many moves and with the Olympiad time limit of 90 minutes for all moves plus 30 seconds a move this is especially draining. It means you play a large part of the game with little time. Nigel was devastating with white usually winning quickly and content to draw with black. Considering that he was a part of the Bessel Kok campaign as well as running for Commonwealth president this was an excellent effort. The team scored 30.5 points (only 13 rounds were played) and finished =16th. Jon Speelman had one of his poorest Olympiads. He struggled especially with black managing to win just one game. Danny after his top performance in Gothenburg this time was disappointing.

He was from very early pre occupied with other things that culminated with the incident at the Bermuda Party that created the news story of the Olympiad and created much world wide publicity. This left plenty for Stuart and Nick. Both responded well, especially Nick who despite having to put up with a concerted attack upon his selection in the preceding months showed great maturity in scoring plus 2. Stuart also finished with a plus score and produced the game of the English performance. In what was a testing Olympiad, with below par accommodation, below par food and played in a heat wave Allan Beardsworth did an excellent job. He worked tirelessly as captain and then took it upon himself to take the team out for meals on a regular basis. In the last few rounds along came the chair of the Supporter's club, Brian Smith, who then took up the mantle of taking the team out. Thanks to both of you.

The Women's team missing so many big guns struggled. Nevertheless Jovanka was her usual consistent self as she took the majority of the work load with Jessie Gilbert. I do not think Jessie ever expected to play board 2 for England so soon and did find it difficult. Nevertheless to score 50% was a respectable result. Jana found the return to top competition difficult and Sophie on debut played very well to return the second best rating performance.

The European Individual Championship

For the first time there were two European Individual Championships in the same financial year. I reported about the Warsaw one in last years report. The second one took place in Kusadasi in Turkey just before Easter. Despite offering incentives to play only Simon Williams and Richard Almond entered. Simon had a disappointing event scoring 4.5 points a performance nearly 100 points under his elo. The amateur Richard Almond started winning his rating category in scoring 4 points and a rating performance nearly 200 points above his elo. In the Women's event Jovanka Houska just missed qualification for the next Women's World Championship yet did very well to score 6.5 with a 2395 performance. Jessie Gilbert secured her third WIM norm in scoring 4.5 points

The Women's World Championship and Other Top Women's Events

The event took place in Yekaterinburg, Russia in March. Jovanka started well by eliminating Almira Skripchenko before being knocked out in the second round by Kinyang Qin of China. She was accompanied by her second Andrew Greet. Many thanks to the ECF who made it possible by giving her a grant from the permanent invested fund.

In July to coincide with the Football World Cup Final the German Federation hosted a Women's Rapid World Cup in Dresden. Harriet Hunt represented England. Harriet qualified from her group with Pia Cramling ahead of the representative of Trinidad and Tobago and Paraguay. However in the last 16 she was knocked out by Poland's Monika Socko. Susan Polgar went on to win the event by defeating home favourite Elisabeth Pahtz in the final.

And back in May in Znojmo was played the European Rapid Women's Championship. 63 players from 9 countries played and from England we had Jovanka, Heather Richards and Sabrina Chevannes (making her adult debut) play. Sabrina finished well above her seeding to win the under 2100 rating category with 5/9. Jovanka lost in the last round to the winner Joanna Dworakowska so finished in a tie for 2nd place that included Heather with 7/9.

In July last year the International bit of 'Womens' chess came back into my directorate. I was not happy about it so was very grateful when Susan McFarland agreed to come on board in September last year to fulfil a role as International Women's Manager. Susan has been very diligent and hardworking and as a result we have had 7 different women represent England in 5 different events since August 2005. This has not happened in a while. Now all that is needed to be done is to have good all play alls so that we can give women the chance to improve their elo ratings and earn titles. We have a shortage of women rated higher then 2100. Are we doing enough to bridge the gap between junior and adulthood.

Domestic International Events

There seems to have been a pick up in the staging of internationally rated events, especially in the late summer period. There were the usual stalwarts in the Isle of Man, the 4NCL and Gibraltar. These events go from strength to strength. The Isle of Man is happening as I write and seems to be flooded with quality players. I counted in excess of 10 players over 2600. The 4NCL continues to go from strength to strength. It provides opportunities for amateurs to get a rating and the final weekend offers great viewing for the chess fan. Watching last Mays final round between Wood Green and Guildford was electric and to see the reaction on everyone's face when Wood Green trumped everybody by having Judith Polgar materialise almost at the board as their wild card was a sight to behold. The Gibraltar Telecom Open was another great success. Last year I said that we needed more big time events to happen on the main land. I got my wish. The Staunton Memorial was possibly the best closed event on our shores since the early 80's. We even saw Michael Adams performing on home soil. He played very well but his 8.5/11 saw him share second with Jan Timman behind Ivan Sokolov on 9. The event also became a match up between England and the Netherlands which saw the Netherlands win comfortably by 35.5 points to England's 25.5. The Dutch showed off three of their talented young players in Jan Werle, Erwin l'Ami and Yge Visser. Just as we were all despairing of our young talent then they hit back at the European Union Championship held in Liverpool. Nigel Short returned to his home North West and won the event. Most cheering was the stunning performances of Gawain Jones and Stephen Gordon in coming second. Both achieved their first Grandmaster norms. Also sharing second place were the veterans Danny Gormally and Luke McShane!!! There is hope for us yet. Another event that seemed to appear unobserved was the Hereford International (29:08-03:09). This was a strong all play organised by Max Devareaux and sponsored by his own Software company. Danny Gormally won with 6/9 followed by another impressive showing from Gawain Jones who finished on 5.5/9. To see a young man putting £3,000 of his own money into staging an event is a cheering and optimistic sight. Well done Max.

The Selection Committee

It was a difficult year for this August for our committees. The team selected for the Turin Olympiad did not garner universal approval. Some felt for example that you should not have players on the Committee who are themselves selected for the team no matter how certain their place in the side is. Also there were comments as to whether we should not follow Elo ratings more closely in selecting the team. Some thought that there must be a formula that could be applied that took in the key factors of youth, activity and rating. As a result a document was prepared by Murray Chandler and David Anderton and after a few tweaks was passed by the board. My own opinion is that we might be complicating what otherwise should remain a simple procedure. A lot of sports in this country just select a team.

Look at the controversial selection of Theo Walcott for the football world cup. Michael Vaughan and Marcus Trescothick would not have played for England if it had been based on their batting averages in county cricket. I just hope we do not follow the Americans and simply pick the first six on the rating list. The new generation of young players (Gordon, Howell, Jones and Williams) are finding it hard to get their Elo rating over 2500. Maybe this is because they play the most chess and standards have gone up. Also to make things easier it would be good to see players playing in at least two of the big events held every year.

Is it too much for a G M to play in at least two of the Isle of Man, the British Championship, the Gibraltar Telecom, the European Union Championship and the European Individual. Also how many of us have experience of the new Olympiad time limit of 90 minutes plus 30 second increments for the game.

If you are used to the 4NCL time limit then this is a VERY difficult time limit to adjust to. Finally I would like to say thank you very much to my selection committee which consisted of Michael Adams, Harriet Hunt, Nigel Short and Brian Smith.

Peter Wells and the Wise Men

One of the people I owe a lot of gratitude to is GM Peter Wells. He has put in a lot of hours as my assistant. It was Peter that resuscitated the contact with David Norwood and saw us able to field a strong team in the Olympiad. Also his input on matters that concern professional players is always very valuable and helps towards improving the relationship between the players and the Federation. Brian Smith has also been a very dedicated member of the team and has come to the rescue on several occasions. His dining of the team on several occasions in Turin was beyond the call of duty. Allan Beardsworth still continues his search for a new sponsor. His handling of the Danny Gormally case was excellent and very perceptive and he is now an experienced England team captain. I am sure that they will still be there to give their assistance to the new Director. I think that my 'wise men' task force was one of the best things that I did.

Final Thoughts

Doing this job is worth nothing if the chess community does not find a new sponsor for the England team. For a start the players will lose confidence in us as a Federation and therefore in the ID. It is one reason to now allow someone else with fresh ideas and contacts to do the job. There is considerable stress and worry over where the money will come from. This year we were rescued by David Norwood. However we are not going to get David to rescue us every year. No sponsor not only means no top players but also uncertainty and leaving decisions to the very last minute in the hope that something will appear. We are a much bigger community than we think with chess lovers in positions of influence. If you are one of these then do come forward. Let us make Team England win again.

In concluding I have to say that I have found it a great honour to be the International Director; a fulfilment of a life's ambition. I was also very proud of the team I put together and of the fact that we brought in over £36,000 into the BCF/ECF coffers. It enabled the Federation to post a very healthy financial statement in 2005 which in turn enabled it to keep game fee down.

Finally I would like to thank the Office staff led by Cynthia Gurney and her very able assistants Gemma, Sophie and Tina for all their help. We in the chess community must be careful never to take them for granted. Within the NCCU and the on going debate about membership schemes I often got the feeling that little concern was shown for the amount of work they were heaping on Cynthia and her colleagues. We must tread carefully and always show our appreciation. I wish you all in the chess community all the best and a good game. Let us still take the message out to everyone that it is cool to play chess.

MARKETING

I would like to express my sincere thanks to all who have supported my efforts in the area of marketing during my tenure as BCF and then ECF Marketing Director. My particular thanks go to the office, my fellow board members and many leading players and leading figures who have given me unwavering guidance and back-up. English chess has always been magnificently supported by many hard working and enthusiastic individuals and this has certainly been my experience.

The area of marketing chess has been challenging but I feel that real progress has been made during recent times. Apart from initiating and completing an extensive market research programme, achieving widespread national publicity on the 'chess as sport' debate and realising a new logo and new imagery and modernised designs for other publicity materials, a mountain of other work has been progressed including numerous press releases, articles, photography, radio interviews and television coverage, particularly on the key audience for World Business TV. It has been a hectic but rewarding period.

I would like to wish the newly nominated Marketing Director, Peter Wilson, every success in his new position and I am sure that with devoted and enthusiastic backing English Chess can thrive in the future.

Roy Lawrence
Director of Marketing (2005-2006)

I was delighted to be elected as Director of Marketing for the ECF at the October AGM.

There is a definite need to establish a good, honest and sustainable image of English Chess and Chess-Players which will appeal to the media and to potential sponsors alike. I am sure that we can achieve this to the benefit of all involved in chess.

I have already launched an initiative to ensure very much greater coverage of chess in local newspapers and on local radio. I shall need the support of players and organisers to achieve this.

My aim is to attract those who may be interested in providing sponsorship, and other assistance, by giving greater publicity of the right kind to chess.

I am optimistic that an expansion of local radio publicity will encourage National Radio to sit up and take note that chess is a good activity with which to be involved – and one which is enjoyed by very many players of all ages and of both sexes.

There is a new optimism in English Chess and I am proud to be a part of it.

Do, please, contact me with any ideas or questions you may have.

Director of Marketing (2006 -)

WOMEN'S CHESS

I'm extremely pleased to report on another successful year for women's chess.

National Girls' Team Championships 2006

The ECF was honoured that Claremont Fan Court School again hosted this prestigious team tournament and that local estate agents Matthew Pierce & Co continued to sponsor the event. Over 200 competitors from all across the UK enjoyed the day. The hot weather allowed everyone to take advantage of Claremont's 97 acres of parkland.

All England Girls' Gold Finals 2006

This was the 3rd year of the national All England Girls' Championships, which attracted the strongest female players from across the country. Competitors play initially in their regional event, in order to qualify for the Gold Finals, when they play to win national titles.

The full results and photos of these events can be found at www.chessuk.com on the "All England" page.

Pride and Prejudice Four Nations Chess League Team

Pride & Prejudice are a ground-breaking new chess team. Women are currently under-represented in what should be a truly universal sport, as only 4% of chess players are female. The Pride & Prejudice team aim to be the start of a dramatic change, as they represent the triumph of female pride in the male dominated chess world.

4ncl rules state that teams must contain a player of the opposite sex, which has traditionally lead to teams including a "token" female player. Pride & Prejudice reverses this and is made up of female players, with a "token" male player! The team has just stormed through division 4 of the 4ncl, gaining promotion to division 3.

Pride and Prejudice Junior Coaching

As part of his commitment to the team, Grandmaster Summerscale has run free coaching sessions for some of the top English female junior players. We intend to expand on this coaching initiative and hold further sessions, involving other members of the team.

Looking to the future

I look forward to involvement with many new projects and will also continue to work on a wealth of other developments and initiatives, including:

- Providing financial and/or organisational support to tournaments such as The British Rapidplay Championships, UK Chess Challenge, Yorkshire Girls' Open.
- Running the Girls' Day School Trust inter-trust championships, involving 26 trust schools across England and Wales.
- Further developing the website for women and girls – www.chessuk.com
- Continuing to run tournaments which combine coaching with tournament play.

Many thanks to everyone for their help and support.

AWARDS

PRESIDENT'S AWARDS FOR SERVICES TO CHESS 2006

Jill Barber

Jill has been a central figure in the development of Junior Chess in Manchester for a number of years. The core team of Julian Clissold, Andrew Wilson, Pat Murphy and Jill Barber have sustained a very large programme of junior chess activity since the early eighties. This has included Manchester Junior Chess Congresses (three per annum), Junior Coaching events, Manchester teams in the EPSCA County Associations matches at Under 9, and Under 11, and a County Association girls team. There have also been other junior representational events over the last ten years for children over 11 years. Jill has played a full part in helping to create successful Manchester teams that year on year have succeeded in reaching national finals.

Jill has also helped to open up chess in a particular school in the Didsbury area of Manchester. From a zero start, with no previous history of chess activity, Jill has encouraged the school and supported their children over a long period so that they are now active in the UK Chess Challenge and the EPSCA Schools team events, getting through to the final last year.

Jill has been particularly helpful in helping to open up and develop girls' chess in Manchester. She initiated girls only training events and provided strong support for a girls team in the EPSCA events.

Finally Jill is also an active member of her local chess club. She plays for representative teams and has been active in organisation in the club as a team captain and a committee member. She has also been active in the organisation of Manchester league chess.

Paul Habershon

Paul has been an English teacher at Bedford Modern School for, I believe, virtually all his working life, and was due to retire at the end of August. For the whole of that time he has organised and encouraged chess-playing throughout the School at all levels. This has involved (amongst other things!) setting up and running after-school and lunchtime chess clubs aimed at both beginners and experienced players; taking squads of players to local congresses; arranging stays at the British Championships for anyone interested in playing in the various junior events there; arranging teams for the Sunday Times and Times National Schools Competitions; and arranging and playing in teams in the local Bedfordshire League.

As a result of his hard work, enthusiasm and diligence, Bedford Modern School has been the strongest school in the area for decades. Numerous qualifications to the National Stages of the Sunday Times and Times competitions have been achieved, and in 1974 the School travelled to London to play in the Finals, winning Silver Medals. Without his encouragement, Jim Plaskett would not be a Grand Master, and Peter Constantinou would not be current British U16 Champion. His work with juniors has not just revolved around Bedford Modern School though, – he has in the past also worked as a Regional Junior Coach, and encouraged all three Ledger brothers.

Paul has also been a successful player in his own right, playing Board 1 for the BMS team in the Bedfordshire League for many years, being a member of the winning Bedford National Open Club Championship team in 2001 (when they defeated the mighty Wood Green in the final), playing in various Minor County Championship-winning sides, winning the Bedfordshire Championship a number of times, and qualifying for the British Championships on at least one occasion.

It is right and proper that Paul's services to chess, particularly in the junior arena, are marked with a President's award in this year, his year of retirement as a schoolteacher. Bedford Modern School will miss him enormously.

Zoe Ryle

Zoe's interest in chess began in the early 1960s, becoming serious in the mid 1980s when she started encouraging children in a local school to play and founding a school chess club, this at a time when there were very few chess clubs in state schools in Inner London. Around this time she joined Willesden & Brent Chess Club, becoming secretary in 1986 and involving herself in the local junior chess congress. She retired from formal teaching in 1992 but continued encouraging children to play, three of her ex-pupils being in the 2004 National Junior Squad.

Zoe being Zoe, retirement was not a time for her to consider relaxing, quite the reverse as she was scared of being bored. She became secretary of the Middlesex Chess League in 1994, seeing through the merger of the league with the county and becoming secretary of Middlesex County Chess Association in 1996, representing the county on the SCCU and the BCF until her retirement in 2006. Her encouragement and teaching of children continues.

Not a long career in chess administration by national standards and no glamorous posts but then that is Zoe and why people like Zoe are so essential to assist in keeping chess as a popular activity in the public domain: the ground roots were her interest and to this she applied herself unstintingly and with good humour, winning widespread admiration for her work with children and for shaking up the County's teams at a time when they were at their nadir and steering them to success. She would still be fully active had not ill health forced retirement upon her. To say she will be sorely missed is a gross understatement.

Footnote: As many who know her say affectionately "She's fine as long as you do precisely what you are told to do". But then her professional career was spent with children having special needs! Zoe laughed when she first heard this and she has continued laughing ever since.

CLUB OF THE YEAR

Club of the Year

From some excellent submissions we selected 3C's (Children' Chess Club, Oldham). Founded in 1978 by three teachers who thought that children in Oldham should aspire to something to be proud of, the club now has something to shout about. As well as running nine teams in the local leagues, they have 2 in the 4NCL and have produced British champions through all age groups at the British Chess Championships.

Small Club of the Year

Of some very good submissions the best and most comprehensive was from Salisbury Chess Club. Despite a relatively small membership Salisbury manage to run several events and engage with the local community. We were impressed with the range of activities, including some charitable, and some for juniors.

PLAYER OF THE YEAR

The English Chess Federation is delighted to announce the winner of the 2006 Player of the Year award. This goes to England's Jovanka Houska. This is unprecedented as Jovanka is the first female to receive this prestigious recognition. This historic occasion will be celebrated by the prize giving ceremony and handover of the award by ECF President Gerry Walsh (see photo). Jovanka has enjoyed a thrilling career so far and the last 12 months have witnessed a serious challenge for the Women's World Chess Championship in 2006 amongst numerous impressive performances.

Jovanka, despite the east European sounding name, was born in South London. She is one of the few English chess professionals around these days and proudly boasts a WGM (International Woman's Grand Master title), is qualified at male International Master level and has aspirations to become England's first proper female Grandmaster.

Jovanka says: 'My first achievement that I was really proud of was representing England in the World girl's Championship under 10. I was also European Under 20 Girl's Champion in 2000, which I think is probably my greatest achievement.' Jovanka also adds: 'This year I participated in the European Individual Championship for Women in Moldova. I finished in the top ten and earned the right to play in the World Championships.'

Gerry Walsh, President of the English Chess Federation commented: "I am absolutely delighted for Jovanka. She has performed brilliantly this year and has always been a popular and enthusiastic personality on the circuit.

BOOK OF THE YEAR AWARD

Short List

Our choice this year features two books where the quality of the writing is the distinguishing feature of the book. The other two books are first, the final volume in the best and most comprehensive chess history ever written and secondly one of the most entertaining books the judges have seen in years.

Chess for Zebras Jonathan Rowson (Gambit) pp 255 £17.99

Three times British Champion, Rowson is a skilled writer and deliberately chose a startling title to catch the reader's attention. Using his formidable academic erudition Rowson explores in depth various aspects of chess playing and thinking. This is a book that is simultaneously challenging, stimulating, instructive and interesting.

My Great Predecessors Part V Garry Kasparov (Everyman) pp 480 £25.00

In the fifth and final volume of his epic series on the world champions and their challengers, Kasparov considers just two players, Victor the Terrible (Korchnoi) and Anatoly the Twelfth (Karpov). As before the book is authoritative and comprehensive and particularly good on the three matches played between Korchnoi and Karpov. He clearly respects not only their chess talent but also their formidable, practical playing strength and resilience.

The King Chess Pieces J H Donner (New in Chess) pp 391 £18.95

The Dutch grandmaster (1927-1988) was a chess writer, annotator, reporter and journalist famous for his humour, wit, irreverence and self mockery. The New in Chess team have collected all Donner's lifetime writings to Dutch chess magazines and news papers. All chess life (and much else) is covered in Donner's inimitable style. It is no wonder that an eminent chess editor chose The King as his "desert island" book.

Van Perlo's Endgame Tactics (New in Chess) pp 479 £18.95

Dutch correspondence grandmaster collected over 30 years tactical endgame positions that appealed to him. Von Perlo had a good chess eye, but above all he relishes and writes with wicked glee about the various misfortunes lying in wait for an unsuspecting player. The 1105(!) positions have been collated and edited by the New in Chess team. The result: great chess entertainment.

The choice came down to two books this year. Garry Kasparov's My Great Predecessors V which covered Korchnoi and Karpov was excluded as the title matches between Kasparov and Karpov had been omitted – surely of the essence in assessing Karpov's career – since these epic contests will be covered in a later volume. However Kasparov's mammoth series has set new standards for writing about chess history.

Chess for Zebras Jonathan Rowson (Gambit) pp255 £17.99

All Rowson's writings are interesting and readable and this book is no exception. Rowson uses his formidable academic erudition to explore in depth various aspects of chess playing and thinking. The chess content is remarkable for Rowson's honesty in analysing the strengths and weaknesses of his games. This is a book that is simultaneously challenging, stimulating, instructive and guaranteed to make any reader think about how he plays the game.

None the less the choice fell upon a totally different type of book, one which has not featured in the Book of the Year before, even though it is a popular genre.

Van Perlo's Endgame Tactics (New in Chess) pp479 £18.95

Collections of game positions for solving or instruction are not uncommon. Unfortunately many are computer generated with cursory instruction or comment added. This is emphatically not the case here. Van Perlo is a Dutch correspondence grandmaster who collected over a period of 30 years tactical end games that appealed to him. He cast his net wide and most of the 1105(!) positions were unknown to the judges. Van Perlo had a good chess eye for attractive situations and wrote about them in a humorous and entertaining manner. Above all he writes with wicked glee about the changes in fortune that lie in wait on the board for all players.

The New in Chess team has edited and organised the material so that there is considerable instructional content in the book. But the winning factor for the judges was the sheer entertainment value – a rare commodity in the chess world these days.

ECF MASTER POINTS SYSTEM

ECF Regional Master, County Master and Club Master titles can be awarded to anyone for performances subject to the following requirements: -

1. Events must be played at a normal rate of play and must be affiliated to the ECF via the Game Fee Scheme. Rapidplay games are not eligible for consideration.
2. In order to gain master points, a player must play at least five games in any given event, which can be a tournament or a league, etc. Games decided by forfeit or adjudication, awarded as byes or by any means other than over the board play, cannot be included. Games once started, which are forfeited for whatever reason, shall however be included. Games played against computers are not included:
3. There are three master titles, based on different levels of performance: -

	Performance level	vs a field of av. grade
Regional Master	180 or higher	150 or higher
County Master	160-179	130 or higher
Club Master	130-159	100 or higher

4. A score of at least 40% must be achieved in any event counting towards a title. In order to be awarded the title of Club, County or Regional Master, a player must have at least FIVE performances (norms) at that level.
5. An event of NINE rounds or more counts as two norms.
6. Results supporting a title application must be achieved in events with starting dates that fall within a five-year period.
7. Higher results which have been applied to a lower level title may nonetheless be applied to a higher title at a later date.
8. At least 80% of the opponents encountered in any given event must have established ECF grades. Ungraded opponents will be counted as being of the same grade as the average of the grades of the other opponents met in that event.
9. It is the responsibility of the player to ensure that the certificate provided is completed correctly. Forms can be obtained from the ECF Office.
10. Certificates should be sent to the ECF Office together with a fee of £15 (£5 for ECF Direct Members). Cheques must be made payable to the ECF.

Smith & Williamson 93rd British Chess Championships

This year we returned to Swansea, but the venue was new to us. The playing rooms were spacious but the building was not simple in design and there were reports of players getting lost. The entry was not as large as I would have liked; I think that the change of dates contributed to the reduction in entries compared with previous visits to Swansea. When I arrived, there was a very large tent set out directly in front of the venue and the 'music' from within could not have been much quieter than a jumbo jet. I could understand why our dates had been changed.

The staff of the University of Wales, Swansea were as helpful as they could be, but the system was sometimes impenetrable. It was unfortunate that so much construction work was being done. I have a dislike for speed bumps at the best of times, but when they are being created during the afternoon rounds when the British Championship is being played, words fail me!

The University accommodation in the newer blocks was comfortable and up to expectation. Self catering was good and meals on campus were up to standard. I believe that an older tower block would have benefited from an upgrade, and it was obvious that other tower blocks were going through that process.

The campus itself is very pleasant, with plenty of grass and trees. The surrounding area offered plenty of opportunities for leisure. Swansea itself seemed busier than it was before and much redevelopment had occurred.

This was the tenth and last year of generous sponsorship from Smith & Williamson. Their support over the years has given us financial stability and I would like to express my thanks to Gareth Pearce for all his help. We will be maintaining a connection with the company through the John Robinson Trust, which they are administering for the Trustees.

The event ran smoothly, with Alex McFarlane acting again as an excellent chief Arbiter. Situations were solved with a sense of humour and goodwill.

Dave Clayton ran the electronic boards despite a few mishaps. We would still like to get our hands on the sneak thief who pinched one of his computers (from underneath my nose, to make it worse.) Audience figures were good. David received the Boxall Salver this year for contribution to the event beyond the call of duty.

The rest is a matter of record. Jonathan Rowson gave us the impression that he might not win this time, but he came through in the end with a professionalism that is a great model for the younger players.

Next year, we move to Great Yarmouth, where the playing conditions are modern. I am sure that the staff of Great Yarmouth College will give you a warm welcome. Please book your accommodation in or around Great Yarmouth as soon as you can.

ENGLISH CHESS FEDERATION GRAND PRIX 2006

Neil Graham reports:

The winners of the 2005/6 Grand Prix are as follows:-

Grand Prix Winner	Andrew Greet	£2000
2nd	Mark Hebden	£800
3rd	Danny Gormally	£400
Female Prix	Ketevan Arakhamia-Grant	£200
Senior Prix	Richard Desmedt	£200
Junior Prix	Ankush Khandelwal	£200
Disabled Prix	Jack Rudd	£200
Under 175 Prix	Donny Muter	£200
Under 150 Prix	Russell Goodfellow	£200
Under 125 Prix	Colin Eckloff	£200
Under 100 Prix	Michael Barker	£200

The following players receive £50 discount in any event in the 2006 British Championship:

Sheila Dines, Akash Jain, Helge Hjort, Dean Hartley, Malcolm Armstrong, Robert Clegg, David Curtis and Ian Strickland.

The final tables incorporate results from the Smith & Williamson British Championships, the South Wales International, the National Junior Squad Young Masters plus weekend events in Wales and Chester.

Despite strong late showings from both Mark Hebden and Danny Gormally, Andrew Greet could not be overhauled in the Grand Prix. In the Female Prix both Selina Khoo and Dinah Norman reached maximum points but it was Ketevan Arakhamia-Grant whose outstanding performance in the Smith and Williamson British Championships enabled her to finish a clear first. In the Junior Prix, a host of players reached the maximum score mark following the Junior events in the Smith and Williamson British Championships – however Ankush Khandelwal increased his total with an outstanding first place in the Young Masters Tournament and thus maintained his lead over his rivals. In the Disabled Prix, Jack Rudd overhauled Dean Hartley at the top by increasing his % score at the South Wales International. As suggested previously although the minor places changed there were no late challenges to the winners of any of the Graded Prix sections. Finally to the Senior Prix where both Harry Lamb and Ray Gamble reached the maximum courtesy of fine results at Chester but they were still well behind runaway winner Richard Desmedt.

To date the total number of players who have scored Grand Prix points (at 25th August 2006):

TOURNAMENTS

37th Chess Olympiad, 20 May - 5 June 2006

A Good Performance for England

The England Women's Team, consisting of IM Jovanka Houska, WFM Jessie Gilbert, WGM Jana Bellin and WFM Sophie Tidman, made a steady start in the Women's Olympiad held in Turin, Italy (20th May to 5th June). Their 3-0 first-round victory against Botswana was followed by a battle against the 6th seed, China, which China won 3-0. A win against Brazil led to tough opposition in the shape of 12th seed Poland. Out-rated on all boards, only Jovanka on Board one secured a win, against IM Iweta Radziejwicz (2439). England bounced back with victory over Iran seeded only two places below them.

Fortune smiled less kindly on the team over the bank holiday weekend. After a defeat to Venezuela, the team was up-floated to play Moldova in round seven. Jovanka drew with fellow IM Svetlana Petrenko, while Jessie and Jana drew with WGMs Karolina Smokina and Elena Partac respectively. This very respectable result led to yet another up-float, this time against the Czech Republic which sadly, the team lost despite a good win for Jovanka on Board one. A draw with Austria in round nine, and a loss to Azerbaijan left the players looking forward to the second rest day.

England rallied in the last three rounds, starting with a convincing victory against the Dominican Republic, Jovanka, Jessie and Sophie winning 3-0. In the pairing against Switzerland, seeded two places higher, Jovanka and Sophie drew, but Jessie Gilbert was not successful against WIM Monika Seps, and the match was lost. In the final round, England faced Finland, and wins from Jessie and Jana secured the victory – a good finish in the Women's Olympiad.

Finishing in 42nd place, just half a point would have brought the team back to its original 35th seeding, a very respectable performance. This was the first time Jovanka led the team in an Olympiad, and both Jessie and Sophie made their Olympiad debuts. Jana returned to the team after some years during which the event has grown much larger and the time control has changed to the much faster 90 minutes for all moves, with 30 second increments. Thus, for all four players this was a new and challenging experience. Sophie merits special mention as she performed above her rating.

The Women's Olympiad was contested by 108 Women's Teams of up to four players, only six of which fielded the minimum three boards, including Fiji and Rwanda. This largest of the Olympiads so far was played in the enormous Palasport Oval built for the 2006 Winter Olympics, in Turin, which is both a modern, commercial centre and a historic city. Many players were able to enjoy the rest days visiting its numerous attractions.

Ukraine won gold for the first time, one and a half points above the first seed, Russia, which had dominated much of the event. The silver medallists were just half a point higher than China, who captured bronze. All three medallists were significantly ahead of the field. China finished four points above fourth-placed Armenia, which tied with Hungary, Georgia and the Netherlands.

One player reached a performance over 2600 and two just below it. WGM Xue Zhao of China performed at 2617 over all 13 games. IM Tatiana Kosintseva of Russia had a performance of 2598, while twelve-year-old WFM Yifan Hou of China achieved an outstanding performance of 2596, some 300 points above her rating of 2298. Two such performances from China in a team without its former Women's World Champions, Xie Jun, Xu Yuhua or Zhu Chen (who plays for the Qatar men's team), augurs extremely well for the continuing strength of Chinese women players.

Gibtelecom Chess Festival, 24 January – 5 February 2006

The Gibtelecom Chess Festival took place in Gibraltar 24 January to 5 February.

Arguably the Masters was the strongest open Swiss played at the rate of round per day in the preceding year. 35 GMs competed and Kiril Georgiev (Bulgaria) ran out a very convincing winner with 8.5/10. Nigel Short and Emil Sutovsky (Israel) finished on 7.5. The 124 player field included a large number of female players, headed by the current women's World Champion Antoaneta Stefanova and her immediate predecessor Zhu Chen. They and Natalia Zhukova split the women's awards. Apart from Nigel, no English player won a major prize. Jon Speelman was particularly unfortunate, he met a very strong field, scored 6/10, but did not even get the £750 rating prize for players under 2550.

There was also a Challengers for players under 2100 and Amateur for players under 1600.

The event was much more than just a strong series of Swisses for players whatever their strength. Master classes were conducted several evening by luminaries such as Alexei Shirov and Victor Bologan where games of weaker players were discussed. There was a teams of four blitz and also a pair non-consultation tournament. I conducted poker master classes several evenings and here was even a small free roll tournament sponsored by 32Red poker site.

After the main event finished there was a junior congress 4-5 February.

The ambience at the Caleta Hotel is very pleasant. The whole event is most enjoyable and next year the prizes will be even higher than in 2006. Make a note in your diary for 23 January to 1 February for the main event and we hope to see you there. The full results can be found on www.gibraltarchesscongress.com

European Union Individual Chess Championships, 6-15 September 2006

FM Steve Giddins reports on round 10

Nigel Short became the outright winner of the 2006 EU Championship, by beating Mark Hebden in the 10th round, whilst his main rivals could only draw. The former world title challenger later declared himself "extremely chuffed" at having won on his first appearance in an international tournament in his home country, since 1989.

Hebden is a player whose opening repertoire is well-known, and has been almost constant for his entire chess-playing life. As Black against 1 e4, he plays only 1...e5, usually either the Marshall or a main line Chigorin. Short avoided these with 3 Bc4, secure in the knowledge that Hebden only ever plays 3...Nf6. Over recent years, just about every top-level player has abandoned the Two Knights Defence, on the basis that Black does not have enough compensation after 4 Ng5. Indeed, after the game, Short commented that "The Two Knights just loses a pawn!", and he added that anybody who played the line regularly as Black "is taking their life in their hands". Hebden fought well, but never really had enough for his pawn, and eventually lost the ending.

Meanwhile, McShane and Sulskis both fought out hard draws with Gordon and Jones respectively. Unlike Short, McShane chose to avoid a theoretical dispute and chose the Trompowsky. He did not achieve much for a long time, and although a significant bout of manoeuvring eventually netted him an extra pawn in the N+P ending, Black's king was very active and he held the balance. Jones played the Scandinavian with 3...Qd6 against Sulskis. This line has been doing remarkably well for Black in recent times, notably in the hands of Dutch champion, Sergey Tiviakov. After some inaccuracies by Black in the early middlegame, Sulskis was soon well on top, and by move 25, he was completely winning, with an extra pawn and the better king. From then on, however, he made no progress at all against Jones' stubborn defence, and eventually drifted into a drawn rook ending. It is hard to pinpoint any one moment when he could have wrapped the game up, but 31 Qa5, with the idea of penetrating to b6 and b7, looks like one way of breaking down Black's resistance.

Simon Williams has had an excellent tournament, but today he hit the buffers big-time, losing in 19 moves, in under two hours. In an obscure line of his favourite Dutch, he produced the novelty 11...exf6?, instead of the compulsory 11...e6, which was played successfully in Kharitonov-Gajewski, San Augustin 2003. After White's obvious reply, he was already in trouble, and his 12th move simply lost the exchange, after which the position was already hopeless. Amongst the other leaders, there were wins for Bischoff, van der Weide and Galego, who all moved up into prize spots.

Thus ends a great 10 days' of chess. All credit is due to Dave Robertson, David Welch and all the many others, whose hard work and imagination has made such a huge success of this event. In fact, I would go so far as to say that everybody involved with the event is entitled to be "extremely chuffed". This year's tournament is "only" a curtain-raiser in the run-up to 2008, when Liverpool celebrates its EU Capital of Culture award. Next year, there are plans for another powerful international open, the budget for which is already in place, and will be more than double this year's. The final budget for 2008 is yet to be confirmed, but believe me, if the plans come to fruition, you will see a chess event, the like of which has not happened in this country for 70 or more years. All, being well, I will be there to bring you daily reports, and once again, will endeavour to get through the entire event, without once mentioning Cilla Black, Ken Dodd or The Beatles...

I.A.P.S. National Chess Championships 2006

The 34th I.A.P.S. National Chess Championship, held at Aldro School was well supported again this year.

The Championship was contested by children from 16 different schools and there was an excellent atmosphere throughout the three days. The chess proved to be most enjoyable and all five sections were close contests. In addition to the chess there was an outing to Chessington World of Adventure and the boarding players had great fun on Monday evening with various competitions including table football, snooker, pool and table tennis.

The last afternoon was devoted to the simultaneous displays where all the 93 players played against the adults. Andrew Martin International Master played the top rated players. Prizes are awarded to the best player in each simultaneous display. This year the adults won all their games but many of the players put up a great fight.

It is hoped that we will be able to hold the Championships at Aldro next year and any schools affiliated to I.A.P.S. will be most welcome.

JUNIOR CHESS

This has been a year of change, and interrupted and yet continuing progress. We have sent parties to the European Championships in Herceg Novi, virtually double the usual number because we did not send anyone to the World Youth. The frequent changes of venue did not enable us to make any coherent plans. The ECF successfully defended the Glorney and Faber Cups in Swansea, we thank all those who helped with this.

The Schools tournament found an excellent venue at Uppingham School, with the best playing conditions for several years, and excellent over night accommodation. We thank Richard Haddrell for his hard work over the last few years.

A trial purchase of chess equipment was made which hopefully will enable the ECF to make chess equipment available to schools and clubs at extremely low rates.

Bromsgrove School hosted a Young Masters, which coupled with a One Day Congress saw tournament chess return to Worcestershire. Our thanks to the school for their assistance.

Finally, I would like to thank Council for giving me to chance to be of service to the Federation for the last 8 years. I feel that if we all did 2 years as a volunteer at any level, then the Federation would work much better. I have enjoyed the chance to put something back into the sport I love (and play badly), and would ask others to see what they can do.

I would like to thank those who have made my job easier, those who forgave my short comings, and hope I have made a difference for the better. I must thank 5 ladies, the office staff especially Cynthia for being capable of reminding me of deadlines, and Julie my wife for her constant support and tolerating sudden absences from home and lengthy session on the Internet.

Cyril Johnson
Director of Junior Chess & Education

I was elected as the new Junior Director on the 21st October 2006 and I look forward to improving the opportunities for junior chess in England. If you have any suggestions, comments or offers of help, please do not hesitate to contact me at chessuk@btinternet.com

22nd Cappelle La Grande Open International

17 – 26 February 2006, Cappelle La Grande

Everyone should try and play at least once in this unique event. Cappelle La Grande is just 5 miles inland from Dunkerque. The organisers provide transport from Calais for competitors arriving as foot passengers on the Dover-Calais ferry. This year there are over 600 entries from 60 different countries. Entries range from over 200 titled players (102 GMs) to local school children. Playing conditions are good, the hall is decorated with flags of all the nations and together with every board having the player's name plate and mini National flag, a colourful spectacle meets competitors when they enter the playing hall

This year we continue the tradition of sending a group of juniors to enjoy the 'Cappelle Experience'. Gill Turner co-ordinated the travel, accommodation and food. GM Mark Hebden joined the group every morning for preparation & analysis then later in the day for a chance to look through the games played. Even the first evening the chess boards were out just to get into 'chess mode'.

The junior group this year and 1st round results:

Pts	Round: 1	Col	Res	Opponent	Fed
	Lyall Bayliss 1680	B	1 – 0	Thibault Real 1430	FRA
	Grant Bucher 1740	B	1 – 0	Ftancois Xav Faes 1499	FRA
	Rhys Cumming 1384	B	1 – 0	Rene Lambert 1650	FRA
	Simon Fowler 2202	W	1 – 0	Anthony Wirig 2410 IM	FRA

A great start for everyone. Particularly good results from Rhys & Simon against much higher rated opponents

Daily routine: Breakfast buffet available from 8.30, coach Gm Mark Hebden arrives at 10.00 ready for the first session. Preparation halts about 12.45 for lunch break and then leave for the playing hall by 1.40pm for a 2 o'clock start. The players are kept supplied with water, energy drinks & chocolate during play. Players usually go through their games with their opponents and then later in the evening with Mark. The group have a meal together in the evening and wait for the next round pairings to be available. Sometimes the youngsters can find information on chessbase so they may have some ideas for the following morning session with Mark.

2nd World School Chess Championship

24 April – 2 May 2006, Kallithea, Halkidiki

300 players were registered for the World School Championship 2006, coming from 30 countries representing 4 continents, Asia, Africa, America and Europe. This was a 50% increase on last year. Greece & South Africa had huge representation with England coming next. The status of this tournament is now established so I was pleased again to organise a team as an extra event to the 'normal' junior funded schedule. Hopefully in the future this championship will be supported and organised as one of the core activities under the Junior Chess Directorate. On this occasion sincere thanks to BCF Youth Chess Trust & Certificate of Excellence (ECF) for financial assistance.

The party consisted of 12 players, 3 coaches, 17 assorted siblings/parents/grand parents and 2 managers (this subsequently grew to at least 12 as everyone got involved). We had an early morning flight from Gatwick, Maggie Kilpatrick's feeble attempt to be refused boarding by throwing her boarding pass away in order to stay asleep in the airport lounge was thwarted by an eagle-eyed fellow traveller.

Arriving mid-afternoon at Pallini Beach Hotel was a familiar sight for some as we have competed on 3 previous occasions in Halkidiki. Booking in went very smoothly, with an unexpected surprise in my room: flowers, basket of fruit, various traditional Greek Easter foods and opened bottle of wine & two glasses - all very mysterious! Mystery solved later when, in reception, a gorgeous beaming young lady manager greeted me with, "Mister Turner, how lovely to see you again. Did you like the room I booked for you!!". Now that's what I call room service.

We established a team base on the patio by the café /pool and the team soon settled to the coaching, preparation relaxing & eating routine. Tennis, table tennis, problem solving, pool, jogging along the beach and of course chess were favourite leisure activities. Some seriously good tennis from Sue & Noel Quinn, Adam Hunt & Ed V-R began to attract quite a crowd. Then catastrophe, the courts are locked. Soon sorted by my lady manager 'friend', "Mister Peter for you it is unlocked. For England it is free".

Now if you have got this far you are perhaps thinking, "What about the chess ...?". I have a very important message. Please, please go to www.englishchess.org.uk/events and follow the links from the home page to the 'World Schools Chess Championship'. You will enjoy reading Matt Hunt's 'wacky' reports. There are lots of photographs and links to the tournament site.

This must represent one of our best overall result in international competition – well done everyone! Of special note is: Jessica 1st= in Girls Under 15, Sam Franklin Under 12 Champion & best result by an unrated player and with George 3rd= in the Under13s. Daniel Hunt in the lead for a while, going out live on the internet and very, very close to a spectacular result. It was just fantastic stuff. Many thanks to all the competitors, parents, coaches, organisers and ECF Office for processing reports so quickly, together we made this a most successful and enjoyable occasion.

Monroi in Action

I have recently returned from Greece, the World Schools Chess Championships (U11). During the tournament, I played three times on board 1 and got to test the Monroi system. I was a little anxious at first, but as I started using it, it turned out to be quite fun. The only annoying thing was that it took a while to type in the moves and keep a score sheet at the same time. I wanted to do this so my coach Adam Hunt IM could analyse my games.

When I was under time pressure, I just switched backwards and forwards going ahead with my score sheet and then catching up on the Monroi when I had time.

At home, all of my grandparents were sitting at their computers, awaiting the next move, whooping with joy, or anguish every once in a while. When I got back they all told me all their stories of the waiting.

I would recommend the Monroi system to any buyer thinking of getting one. It is fun to use, impressive, and if on the internet fun for other people to watch.

National Schools Championship 2005-6

6 – 7 July 2006, Uppingham School

The competition is complete. The eight semi-final qualifiers met at Uppingham School 6th and 7th July 2006 to decide the Plate and Championship winners. It was a delightful venue. Cyril Johnson, ECF Junior Director, attended. David Welch, as ever, was Chief Arbiter. Nottingham HS A are Champions, retaining their title. Monmouth School take the Plate Championship.

There is an age handicap. The older team, to win, must finish ahead by a number of points at least equal to the age difference in years (taken as an integer by truncation, and with a maximum value of 4). Teams winning on age handicap (or on board count if there is no handicap) are marked by an asterisk. Failing an asterisk, the team with more points is the winner.

Glorney & Faber Cups – A Hat Trick!

2 – 4 August 2006, Swansea

The competitions for the 59th Glorney Cup (teams-of-five, usually boys) and the 39th Faber Cup (teams-of-three for girls) were held at Singleton Park, Swansea University in the week preceding the arrival there of the Smith and Williamson British Championships. The site is part way along the coast from Swansea to The Mumbles and is said to be the nearest university campus to the sea anywhere in the world; the Gower Peninsula, near where it stands, is known to be one of the most beautiful places in all of Britain. Teams and accompanying adults were housed in student rooms on-site and all of the arrangements were the same as the last time we played here, in 2002. Everything went very smoothly again and the Welsh Chess Union organisers together with staff of Swansea University are to be congratulated and thanked for doing such a good job.

Peter Purland controlled the event, assisted by Kevin Staveley, and there were no problems of any kind during play - with good sportsmanship in evidence throughout. Richard Jones produced bulletins, which were made available soon after the day's play. An original plan to hold the event in the main building of the campus was changed when Ian Eustis discovered that a brass band had scheduled their practice sessions nearby! We were relocated to good, alternative accommodation a safe distance away in the Keir Hardie Building [it was a source of wry amusement to the Team Manager that none of his charges had ever heard of this man].

The players selected for England, with their ECF grades (July 2006), were:

Faber ... Yangshan Yu (128), Nicola Thomas (132) and Hannah Dale (128);

Glorney ... Peter Constantinou (193), Daniel Hall (174), Charles Fry (177), Vedantha Kumar (174) and Chris Russell (179). All of them played up to their strengths and behaved perfectly during the tournament.

Owing to the very late withdrawal of the Czech teams and the decision of Scotland not to attend, the event was turned into a triangular, double-round tournament. Teams of local adult players were kind enough to step in to avoid byes and to give the youngsters a game during every session; the scores in those matches were not counted towards the final outcome.

Both England teams won their competitions this year - thus completing hat-tricks in the two cups, following Aberdeen 2004 and Liverpool 2005.

Heather Lang ... herself an ex-Scottish Faber player ... managed the English girls and helped during the joint coaching sessions with them. The support she gave the girls was a significant factor in their success.

IM Richard Palliser ... Glorney captain in the past and a very distinguished chess-author nowadays ... organised the coaching. Having this sort of fire-power in support of our players gave us a major advantage in pre-game preparation for the matches.

Individual Scores (from 4 games):

Faber: Yangshan Yu 1½; Nicola Thomas 4; Hannah Dale 3.

Glorney: Peter Constantinou 2½; Daniel Hall 3; Charlie Fry 3½; Vedantha Kumar 2½; Chris Russell 4.

4th European Union Youth Chess Championship U10, U12 & U14

8 – 17 August 2006, Mureck, Austria

The 4th European Union Youth Chess Championships has finished with 100 chess juniors from 21 countries competing in U10, U12 and U14 categories. The tournament was held in Mureck, Austria – a picturesque town in the rural south-east of the country. Superbly hosted, and well organised, the tournament has again proved successful with the players and their assorted team managers, coaches and parents.

The tournament is FIDE rated and comprises 9 rounds over 9 days. Time control is 90 minutes per player plus 30 seconds per move, with most games taking around 3 hours. The quality of the chess, especially at the top boards of each section, has been very high. It has been a tournament to remember!

Bromsgrove Young Masters

24 – 27 August 2006, Bromsgrove School

New venue, new county, new problems, but still the same enjoyment.

The event became part of the Bromsgrove School Festival of Chess, with a well attended one day congress. The accommodation was excellent, with well appointed kitchen and well-equipped games room which was patronised until closing time. Routh Hall, the actual playing hall was a majestic sound proofed Victorian structure in close proximity to the dining room, very useful!

The Chess.

The event was a 24 player FIDE rated tournament for the first time, and was won by Ankush Khandelwal of Nottingham with a perfect score from 6 games. Murray David and Dominic Foord came equal second with 4 points. The ladies prize was won by Sheila Dines with 3½ points who fought off a challenge from Anjali Lakhani only making certain in the last round of her trophy and prize.

The One Day congress was accommodated in the Maths building of the school, and was well controlled by Sean Hewitt.

The last morning saw much hilarity with late commemorations of wedding anniversaries and presentations to a worthy controller.

An innovation was the giving of CDs to all the players with the game scores from the event, a permanent record of the event.

Grateful thanks are due to David Welch for his calm controlling, especially of riotous blitz tournaments, Bromsgrove School for providing excellent accommodation, location and food and the Championship Trophy which was presented by Phil Bird, the enterprises manager of the school. We look forward to going back next year.

European Youth Chess Championships

9 – 20 September 2006, Herceg Novi

Photo: The English players with the five coaches

During the first half of the stay everyone struggled with the heat, with fans brought into rooms and doors left ajar to provide ventilation. Then came day on day of extraordinary rain, causing a black-out in the region one evening, stranding many players in their hotel in nearby Igalo on the last morning as a river broke its banks. Amidst all of this the English players kept their cool and performed well, aided by the team of five coaches who tirelessly helped prepare for the sessions and analyse performances. A special thanks to Robert Bellin, Andrew Greet, Jovanka Houska, Neil McDonald and Thomas Rendle.

On the way out we were diverted to Podgorica, capital of Montenegro - independent since June - from where a coach took us in the dark to the hotel at Herceg Novi. We woke the next day to the beautiful sight of the Adriatic sea and mountains. There was a chance to do some exploring on a boat during the free day after Round 5. A highlight was a visit to the picturesque Our Lady of the Rock near Perast, a chapel on its own island built in C15-C17 where mariners would pray for a safe journey. Our voyage home was via the Serbian capital Belgrade. Over the week everyone got to know each other so well they hardly needed the red T-shirts for the journey back.

Harriet Hunt, ECF Manager of International Junior Chess, oversaw all the preparation; Krishna Parmar and Erik and Rosie Khoo were charged with the task of managing an unusually big party of 17 players and parents, all of whom played their part. In particular, Quan Zhou was on hand with technical help for the internet and Charika Sirisena collated data on the computer. With Russia, England and other countries not entering the World Youth Championship in October there was a record number of participants for the European championship this year and the standard was very high.

It was striking what a high proportion of the players were from Russia, former Soviet Union states and Eastern Europe. These countries accounted for three quarters of the top twenty seeds in the sections in which our party competed (see chart). Over the course of the nine days our group played against opponents from 34 countries, with 68% of these games against opponents from Russia, FSU states and Eastern Europe. The combined final score equates to a highly respectable 54% of possible points, with 12 players finishing in the top half of their sections.

ECF president Gerry Walsh was there as Chairman of the Appeals Committee besides attending meetings of the European Chess Union, for which he serves as Deputy President. The venue for next year was confirmed as Croatia, and for 2008 once more as Montenegro. Gerry thanked all the schools for allowing pupils to come away during term time. Indeed several of them brought school work along to do in any available free time.

The results are summarised in the table with some extra data to give an idea of the standard of the sections and games. Callum, Yang-Fan and Radha distinguished themselves with a top ten finishing position in their sections. Andrew Greet has specially annotated an outstanding game of Callum's against a Russian FM. For further games annotated by the coaches, lots of photographs and commentary on how the trip unfolded day by day, see the report on the ECF website www.englishchess.org.uk/events.

Commencing 1982 inscribed chess boards have been substituted for shields. Recommendations for awards should be forwarded (via the appropriate Union if in England, or via the national organisations for Scotland or Wales) to the ECF Office at Battle by 31st May each year.

HANLEY WINS CLASSIC TERAFINAL

Sixteen year old James Hanley edged out the field in one of the tightest Terafinals yet, to claim the coveted £2,000 first prize and the title of STRAT in The British Land UK Chess Challenge Terafinal.

The culmination of the event was a two day tournament in Sheffield on the weekend of the 19th and 20th August, 2006, where the last 56 players remaining from the original entry of 74,000 fought it out for almost £10,000 of prize money.

Each player in the event was a champion of their age group, although because of the disparate ages and grades (the ages ranged from under 7 up to 18 years of age, and from ungraded up to 215), all the competitors were not of equal strength.

The Terafinal was, in effect, four competitions in one. Besides the top prize of £2,000, and other prizes for high placings, there was £1,000 prize for the top girl, £1,000 for the top under 11 and £300 for the top under 9 player. Such was the evenness of the competition that in the last round at least 30 of the 56 players still had a chance to win one of these top prizes.

In the race for first prize there were at least 10 fancied players: Li Wu, David Eggleston, Peter Poobalasingam, James Hanley, Ankush Khandelwal, E Josiah Lutton, Kishan Lakhani, Yangshi Yu, James Foster and Michael Rabbitte. Gradually the players clashed with each other or fell at other hurdles so that after round 5 there were only two competitors with full marks – James Hanley and Peter Poobalasingam. Their game was an extremely complicated affair but suddenly on move 27, with both players drifting into time trouble a draw was agreed. That meant a new game had to be played with 10 minutes each on the clock to decide the destination of first prize.

James Hanley won the toss and played white, gaining pressure against Poobalasingam's French Defence. Eventually he won a pawn and, despite facing stubborn defence, gradually pushed forward. Black had one chance to turn the tables with a tactical opportunity but when this was missed, James reasserted his control and wrapped up the victory. Poobalasingam took his defeat in a very sporting manner, the pain being somewhat lessened by the second prize of £500 outright. Third equal place went to Li Wu and Ankush Khandelwal.

Hanley's victory was based on an uncompromising desire to win. Many of his games went right down to the last minute on the clock. He refused a draw in round 3 against James Foster and his position gradually went down hill. But keeping his nerve he managed to force a win during the time scramble. He had another narrow victory against the strong Royal Grammar School (High Wycombe) player, David Saunders. Only in the last round, on move 27, did he permit himself a draw with Poobalasingam and that was in the knowledge that there would be a final show-down for first place.

HIGH FIVES

The special rules of the Chess Challenge ensure that there can be only one STRAT and only one player winning the £2,000. However, there was considerable prize money for the other competitors in the event - £1,000 for the top Under 11 and £1,000 for the top Girl. In this case, however, ties were possible and the girl's prize was shared between Sheila Dines of Old Palace School in Surrey and Rhian Hughes of South Morningside in Midlothian. The Under 11 prize was divided between Yang Fan Zhou of Whitgift School in Surrey and Jude Lenier from Crowborough Chess Club in Sussex. All these players, including the winners of Challengers A and B (Peter Roberson and Thomas Eggleston), plus Peter Poobalasingam, the second placed Terafinalist, took home £500 each.

The Under 9 prize of £300 deservedly went to Roy Zhang of St Paul's School in Berkshire.

[notes by Stephen Gordon]

1.e4 e5 2.Nf3 Nc6 3.d4 exd4 4.Nxd4 Nf6 5.Nxc6 bxc6 6.e5 The Scotch, a good way to play. White has a really good pawn structure and more space than black. Black hopes that his piece activity will balance this out 6...Qe7 7.Qe2 Nd5 8.c4 Nb6 9.b3 a5 10.Bb2 Ba6 11.Nd2 Qe6 Black wants to fianchetto his king's bishop and so this move helps prepare it [11...g6 12.e6 is a problem for black] 12.g3 g6 13.Bg2 Bg7 14.Ne4 Qe7 [Black cannot snatch the apparently loose pawn with 14...Bxe5 because of 15.Bxe5 Qxe5 16.Nf6+! winning the queen] 15.0-0 0-0 16.Rfe1 Rfe8 [16...Bxe5 17.Nd2! is maybe what Yang-Fan had in mind. Its going to be difficult for black to hold onto his extra pawn 17...f6 18.Nf3 d6 19.Nxe5 fxe5 20.Bxc6 would have been clearly better for white.

The a1–h8 diagonal would be opened at some point through the pawn break f2-f4 and then the b2 bishop will be the best piece on the board; meanwhile black's minor pieces are both staring at a well defended pawn, having literally no say in the game] 17.Qf3 Bb7 18.Nf6+ Bxf6 19.exf6 Qf8

[19...Qxe1+ 20.Rxe1 Rxe1+ 21.Bf1 is another way but the mate threat of Qf4-h6-g7 is still going to be very difficult to stop] 20.Qf4 d6 21.Qh4! Great move, eyeing up the e7 square for a rook 21...Rxe1+ 22.Rxe1 Re8 23.Re7

23...Na8 [obviously the rook can't be taken 23...Rxe7 24.fxex7 Qe8 25.Qf6 with a quick mate] 24.Bc1 h5 25.Bh6! forcing the queen off the defence of the rook 25...Qxh6 26.Rxe8+ Kh7 27.Qe4 Qg5 28.Rh8+! A fine way to finish, it's mate in 3 28...Kxh8 29.Qe8+ A fantastic game by one of the country's best juniors. 1–0

There is always a bit of luck in the Swiss system and Jude Lenier benefited from this this year when he managed to catch up Yang-Fan in the last round and thus shared the £1,000 first prize. Jude's run of opponents was slightly easier than that of his nearest rivals but this result, coupled with his share of the under 9 prize last year, make him a player to be reckoned with. We must also remember that Jude is an under 10 player and so will be in the running for the under 11 prize next year.

Challengers Sections

There were three other tournaments taking place at the same time as the centre-piece Terafinal. Two Challengers events were run for players who came second or third in the Gigafinals at Manchester and in Wiltshire. Both events were of equal strength and contained extremely high quality players. The prize money was over £1,500 in both events and the top prize of £500 was an attractive lure. In all, 121 players took part in these two events. Over the years the UK Chess Challenge has grown in size. In 1997 there were 14 Terafinalists and 14 Challengers from an original entry of 24,000 players. In the year 2000, the first year British Land took over sponsorship, 39,000 players entered and there were 24 Terafinalists and 34 Challengers. The mean grade in the Terafinal was 102.

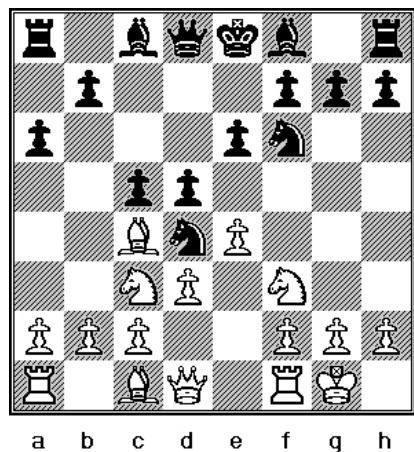

This year the event attracted 74,000 players, there were 56 Terafinalists and 121 Challengers. The mean grade of the Terafinal was 102.

So there has been an undeniably increase in quantity without a dilution in quality. In fact, the quality of play has improved as well. Anyone who doubts this, should take a look at this little gem of a game tossed off by the winner of the Challengers A section, Thomas Eggleston, in round 5.

White: Thomas Eggleston (Hetton School, Durham) Grade 186

Black: Dominic Rabbitte (Tameside, Cheshire) Grade 157

1 e4 c5 2 Nc3 Nc6 3 Bb5 Nd4 4 Bc4 e6 5 Nf3 Nf6 6 0-0 a6 7 d3 d5

8 A clash of civilisations. White aims to prove that his straightforward honest-to-goodness development is viable, whilst black is trying to show that the white bishop at c4 is exposed to attack in the middle of the board.

8 exd5 exd5 9 Nxd5!

4 The point of this sacrifice become clear after a few moves

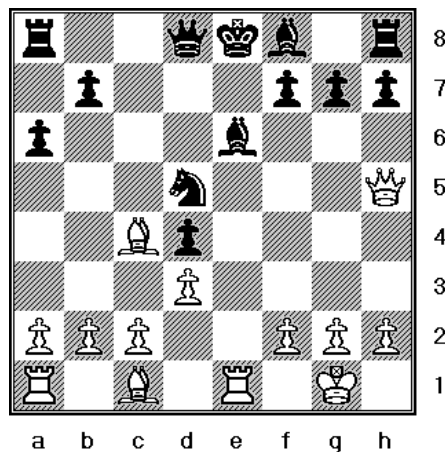

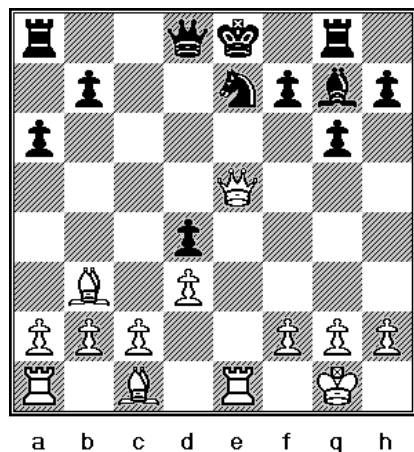

9 ... Nxd5 10 Nxd4 cxd4 11 Qh5

Threatening the knight at d5. If it moves, of course, Qxf7 is checkmate.

11... Be6 12 Re1

The pins put black in a state of near collapse. White's threat is still Bxd5 and there seems no way for black to hold on to his extra material. If 12 ... g6 simply 13 Qxd5, and if 12 ... Nc7 13 Bxe6 Nxe6 14 Rxe6+ wins the material back with an extra pawn due to the pin on the f7 square.

12 ... Ne7 13 Bxe6 g6 14 Qe5 Rg8 15 Bb3 Bg7

Having given white his extra pawn, black hopes to be left in peace to develop naturally. Alas, it is not to be.

16 Bxf7+!!

A second sacrifice blows black completely away.

16 ... Kxf7 17 Qe6+ Kf8 18 Bg5!

The third "death by pinning" forces black to lay down his arms.

A spectacular game by Thomas Eggleston which will no doubt find its way into the anthologies.

English Counties Girls Chess Federation (ECGCF):

Website: www.allyorkshire.com

This organisation, which has existed since 1998, provides an Inter-County team competition for U14 girls, which is arranged as a series of four Regionals followed by a Grand Final and Minor Final, each year. The Counties are the real Counties of England as on their pre-1974 boundaries, and not 'Chess' counties. Qualification is by birth or residence only. There is also a U11 inter-county team competition, known as the Whitehead Cup, held once annually.

ECF CERTIFICATE OF EXCELLENCE

Supported by The Board of Actuaries

The new Certificate of Excellence Scheme has been designed to be simpler and more user-friendly than previous Schemes. The Scheme has three levels, Gold, Silver and Bronze. There is a syllabus for each level and eventually there will be lesson notes at all levels. Please find enclosed a set of lesson notes for the Bronze Certificate.

The Bronze and Silver examinations comprise of 15 multiple-choice questions (short explanations are required on some questions on the Silver Paper). The Papers have been designed so that a candidate is able to complete them during a normal school lunch hour, 30 minutes is allowed for the Bronze Level and 45 minutes for the Silver. Candidates will require a board and set at the Silver level because some question ask them to play through a series of moves. It is anticipated that the majority of applicants will be able to complete the examination well within the time allowed.

At the Gold Level, the examination is split into two 45-minute sections, which can be taken at different times. The Bronze and Silver Examinations cost £2.50. The Gold examination is charged at £5 because of the added complexity of marking the exam.

At the Bronze level each candidate will receive a pen and badge along with their examination paper. Each Silver Certificate candidate will receive a English Chess Federation (ECF) pen and scorebook. Once completed examination papers are to be returned to Matthew Turner GM (address below) and successful candidates will be issued with a laminated certificate.

CHESS PROBLEM NEWS

by John Rice

Winton Capital British Chess Solving Championship 2005-6

Given that he had won the title on 14 previous occasions, it was no surprise when GM Jonathan Mestel carried off the trophy in this event, staged as usual in February at the Barraclough Hall, Oakham School, where the host was Graham Lee. Jonathan was not, in fact, the outright winner. His score of 58 points out of 65 was 6 behind that of reigning World Champion GM Piotr Murdzia (Poland). Second place went to GM Marjan Kovačević (Serbia), scoring 59.5. Other leading British contenders were IM David Friedgood (5th, 51 pts), FM Colin McNab (6th, 49), Paul Valois (7th, 43) and FM Michael McDowell (8th, 42). There were 33 competitors altogether, most of whom had worked their way to the Final by solving the easy starter problem that had appeared in a number of outlets in June-July 2005 and then some more difficult items in a second postal round.

The Championship is directed for the British Chess Problem Society by Brian Stephenson, with assistance from Paul Valois in the first two rounds. Thanks to generous sponsorship from Winton Capital Management, Brian is able to invite solvers from abroad to take part, and their presence ensures that the event is highly rated and that the home participants are kept on their toes. The visitors can gain financial rewards for their efforts, but of course the Champion's trophy is the ultimate prize for the British solvers. Full details of this event can be found on Brian Stephenson's website (www.bstephen.freeuk.com), together with problems set in previous years and information about the current Championship.

World Chess Solving Championship, Wageningen (Netherlands), July 2006

After winning the WCSC in 2005, the British team had a reputation to live up to in 2006. It happens rarely in this event that a country retains its title. GM John Nunn, GM Jonathan Mestel and FM Colin McNab, all three with PhDs in Mathematics, did their best to encourage the other teams by scoring badly on the three 2-movers set in round one, which all have to be solved in 20 minutes. 10 points were dropped here, but after the first day's solving (3 rounds altogether) the British team, with fine performances on the 3-movers, was lying in second place, 5.5 points behind the ever-strong Israeli team. The first round on the second day (3 helpmates) brought no change to this situation, but Israel dropped back in round 5 (direct-mates in 4 or more moves), scoring only 18 where Great Britain managed a full 30. A sound performance on the selfmates in round 6 enabled John, Jonathan and Colin to hold off a challenge from Poland, who had by now overtaken Israel. With 148 points overall, against Poland's 146.25, Great Britain won the Championship for the second successive year, an outstanding performance in an event that is more and more keenly contested on each occasion. The strong Polish team will be the one to beat in Bulgaria next September: can Britain make it three in a row?

European Chess Solving Championship, 2006

At the time of writing, this event has not yet been held. We shall report on it, and on the European Championship 2007, due to be held in July, in the Yearbook 2008.

International Solving Contest, January 2006

After a trial run last year, this new solving contest took place on a Sunday in January, with over 250 competitors worldwide. The 2-round event began simultaneously in every country, which meant an early start for the 10 British contestants, solving at venues in Sheffield and Kingston upon Thames. The leading scorer was a Russian, Alexey Lebedev, who solved everything correctly. Second place went to GM John Nunn, solving at Kingston, with a score of 59 out of 60. Other British solvers who scored well were FM Colin McNab and IM David Friedgood.

Honorary Master of Chess Composition

At its meeting in the Netherlands in July 2006, the FIDE Permanent Commission for Chess Composition granted the above title to the distinguished British problemist Sir Jeremy Morse, in recognition of his lifelong work to promote chess compositions, especially task and record problems. Well known for his keen interest in supporting both over-the-board chess and problem-solving while he was Chairman of Lloyds Bank, Sir Jeremy is the author of Chess Problems: Tasks and Records, recognised throughout the problem world as the definitive work on the subject.

ECF Magazine of the Year 2006

The Problemist, one of the two bi-monthly magazines of the British Chess Problem Society, was named by the English Chess Federation as its Magazine of the Year 2006. Edited and largely typeset by John Rice, the magazine contains sections from around a dozen contributors, each dealing with a particular aspect of chess composition. One of its strengths is the fact that four of these sub-editors are from overseas. The magazine regularly runs to 48 close-packed pages, and there are composing and solving tournaments for the Society's members to take part in. As well as receiving the magazines, British Chess Problem Society members can attend monthly meetings held in London, and UK residents may borrow books by post or in person from the Society's extensive library. There is also an annual Residential Weekend held outside the London area around Easter. Membership costs £18 per annum (£15 for one's first year, and half-price for under-21s).

Enquiries should be addressed to the Assistant Hon. Treasurer, Stephen Taylor, Greenways, Cooling St., Cliffe, Rochester ME3 7UB. A specimen copy of The Problemist and of its Supplement, aimed principally at less experienced problem enthusiasts and also edited by John Rice, will be sent on request. The Hon. Secretary of the BCPS is Christopher Jones, 11 Severn Grange, Ison Hill Road, Bristol BS10 7QA.

Some chess problems by British composers

Barry Barnes, who recently retired from active composition, is an International Master who has gained innumerable successes in composing tourneys both at home and abroad. For many years Barry was Secretary and subsequently First Vice-President of the FIDE Permanent Commission for Chess Composition (PCCC). Diagram A, in which White, playing up the board, must force mate in 2 against any defence that Black may play, is one of his recent award-winners.

Barry Barnes
1st Honourable Mention, The Problemist 2002 (Jan-June)

White to play and mate in 2

The key (White's first move) is 1.Qe1, which carries the threat of 2.Qxe4#. The point of the problem lies in the mates given by moves of the Rf6 after defences by Black. Three different black units can play to d5, and each move leads to a different reply. If 1...Rd5+, White must parry the check with 2.Rf2#. 1...Bd5 opens the line d8-h8, which forces White to play 2.Rf8# to close it again. A similar effect occurs if Black defends with 1...d5, since this opens the line from a7 to g7: the reply is 2.Rf7#. Further defences are 1...e3, allowing 2.Rf5#, and 1...Kd5,d4, when 2.Rd6# is mate.

Diagram B shows a recent award-winner by John Rice, who retired in 2006 as President of the PCCC after 4 years in office. This is also a 2-mover, but it differs from the kind of problem shown in diagram A in that, in addition to the key and subsequent play, there is a close try by White, refuted by a single black move, introducing mates that differ from those seen after the key.

John Rice
4th Prize, The Problemist 2002 (July-Dec)

White to play and mate in 2

If White tries 1.Qf6?, threatening 2.Qc3#, Black can defend by discovering check with the Rd6. But each time White has a mate: 1...Rxc6+ 2.Nde5#, and 1...Rxd7+ 2.Nce5#. However, Black has the further defence 1...d4!, to which there is no white reply. So instead White plays 1.Qe5!, with the same threat of 2.Qc3#, and now the two defences by the BRd6 are not checks but pins: 1...Rxc6 2.Bxd5#, and 1...Rxd7 2.Na5#. The mates are changed because the WQ occupies e5 after the key, and White no longer has to parry black checks. There are three further variations: 1...d4 2.Nb6#, 1...Nd4 2.Qxd4#, and 1...Na2 or Ne2 2.d3#.

BCPS Secretary Christopher Jones continues to win prizes with his skilfully crafted helpmates. These are problems in which Black, playing first, helps White to reach a position in which White can mate in one.

Because the two sides co-operate instead of playing against one another as in over-the-board chess, some spectacular and unfamiliar effects can be shown. Successful solvers of helpmates, such as the British team referred to above, have to be prepared to indulge in some unusual thinking to crack these problems, but there are rewards aplenty. You find out what the chess pieces are really capable of! Diagram C shows one of Christopher's prizewinning problems from a tourney conducted by a Macedonian magazine.

Helpmate in 3: 2 solutions

As stated above, Black plays first, so Black's moves are given first in the solution. In each line of play the BK must leave c5 before he can be mated. The first solution runs: 1.Kb4 Rc3 2.Nd3 Bxb5 3.Rc5 Rxb3#. Because the BRf5 must eventually block c5, the Nc1 must play to d3 so that 3.Rc5 is not check. But in order to get to the square b3 the WR must pass over d3, and this is what determines White's first move: 1...Rc3 clears the way for the BN. As is fitting in a helpmate, the second solution contains an analogous effect: 1.Kd5 Bxb5 2.Nd7 Rc3 3.Bd4 Bc6. Here it is the WB that must pass over d7 before the BN from b8 can occupy this square to prevent Black's third move, 3.Bd4, from being a check. The interchange of White's first two moves between the two solutions is a characteristic refinement. Perfectly matched solutions are typical of Christopher's compositions in this field.

At a recent lecture delivered to the British Chess Problem Society, Jim Grevatt spoke about and demonstrated some of the problems of Gerald F. Anderson, one of Britain's leading composers of the 20th century. He was equally at home in many different fields of composition. Diagram D shows a fine problem in which White, to play, delivers mate in 3 moves against any black reply.

White to play and mate in 3

The position of the two white pieces d6 and c5 suggests that this B+R "battery" will fire to give check and then mate. After a "try" such as 1.Ra5+, Black will play 1...Kxc4, and there is then no possibility of a mate in two. The key is 1.Kh7, allowing a subsequent promotion on g8. Now there is the threat of a check by the B+R battery, followed by 2...Kxa4 3.Ra5#, or 2...Kxc4 3.g8Q/B#. Precise play by Black forces White to choose specific arrival squares for the checking R. After 1...Bc3, 2.Ra5+ must be played to ensure that 2...Ka4 is not possible. 1...Ra3, Rc3 and Rd3 lead to 2.Rb5+ only, to prevent 2...Kb3. 1...d3 is a quite subtle variation: d4 must be guarded, so White plays 2.Rd5+, and after 2...Kxc4 the mate is 3.Ne3#, which exploits the fact that the BNc2 is now pinned. 1...Re4 is countered by 2.Re5+. Discovered checks from the BNc2, which the key-move allows, are answered by 2.Rf5+, with the new mate 3.Nb6# to follow 2...Kxa4. 1...Rg4 and 1...Rh5 lead to 2.Rg5+ and 2.Rxh5+ respectively. Finally there is a surprise: the defences 1...Re3 and 1...Rf3 lead to the quiet (i.e. non-checking) continuation 2.Nb6, with the threat of 3.Rb5#, which is also playable after 2...Kb3. If 2...Na3,e1,e3+, 3.Rf5# is mate, while 2...Ka3 enables White to mate by 3.Rc3#. A complex piece of work, constructed with consummate skill.
