3. Participation

The European Individual Chess Championship is open to all players representing the Chess Federations which are members of the European Chess Union, regardless of their title or rating. There is no limit to participants per federation. However, applications can only be sent by national federations.

4. Registration

- The registration deadline is July 15th. Prolongation of the registration deadline may be possible for some federations if a very special reason is presented as a justification for the delay.
- To ensure proper tournament standards, only ECU member-federations may present a complete official registration form (see website) and send it to the contact person before the registration deadline on July 15th. Incomplete registrations will not be accepted.
- Once the registration deadline expires, organizers reserve the right to refuse late registrations, or, in case of availability, a penalty fee of 100€ will be charged for each late registration.
- Each player shall pay the amount of 100€ at the moment of their registration before July 15th. This registration fee is compulsory and is considered as confirmation of participation. If the amount is not paid the registration will be considered invalid and will not be accepted. This payment includes covering the expenses of transport from Keflavik International Airport to Hotel Natura or Reykjavík city center and back to the airport, accreditation, identification badges, refreshments for participants and other organization costs.
- Each coach or accompanying person has to pay the registration fee of 50€ if he or she wishes to receive the transportation services and the accreditation badges necessary for the playing halls and ceremonies.

5. ECU Fee

According to the ECU regulations, GM, IM, FM, WGM, WIM, and WFM are required to pay a fee of 65€/person, while other players have to pay 130€/person as the entry fee. ECU issues invoices only to national federations.

According to the ECU regulations (Art. B.9.5.1), the entry fee shall be paid by federations to ECU before or at the start of the competition. If the entry fee is not paid for a player until the end of round 2, this player will not be paired in subsequent rounds. The ECU fees must be paid to the account of the European Chess Union:
